Game 53

Mercer vs. Georgia Southern

May 15, 2007

J.I. Clements Stadium

The Bears dropped two of three its last time out at Gardner-Webb, but clinched a berth in the Atlantic Sun Tournament. Brantley New was dealt another hard-luck no decision in game one tossing nine innings of five-hit, one-run ball while striking out eight and walking one. Mercer trailed by one in the eighth inning, but Josh Thompson delivered an RBI double and Matt Crawford drove in Billy Shaughnessy with a sacrifice fly in the 10th giving the Bears a 2-1 lead, but Cory Gearrin blew his second save in 13 opportunities as GWU garnered a unearned run in the 10th by way of Gearrin's overthrown pick-off attempt and the Dawgs ended the game with a successful suicide squeeze in the 11th frame. The Bears were down 8-1 following four innings in game two and were never able to recover. All five of Mercer's runs came via the home run as Thompson, Eric Renfroe and Tyler Brown went deep. In the series finale, Blake Quarles earned his first win of the year allowing two runs on six hits in 5 2/3 innings. Gearrin rebounded to save his 12th game and took over the A-Sun lead in the process. Shaughnessy and John Dortch provided the offensive support. Shaughnessy went 3-for-4 with two RBIs and a homer, and Dortch belted a two-run round tripper of his own.

2007 Mercer Bears Baseball

Craig Gibson Head Coach - Fourth Season

Mercer head coach Craig Gibson has helped put the Bears among the elite squads in the Atlantic Sun Conference heading into 2007. Last season, Gibson led Mercer to its best finish since 1999, earning a 34-26 mark and a third-place finish in the conference. Highlighting the season were victories over No. 1 Florida and No. 1 Clemson. Closer Andrew Urena finished second in the nation in saves with 15, and earned All-America honors from several publications. Urena was chosen by the Chicago White Sox during the 11th round of the June major league baseball draft. Brantley New was also drafted last June in the 27th round by the Boston Red Sox, but elected to return to Mercer for his senior year. The Bears also finished over .500 in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1982-83. Due to the recent success, Gibson has been able to land top-flight recruits, as Collegiate Baseball tabbed Mercer's 2007 recruiting class among the nation's top tier.

In 2005, Gibson guided the Bears back above .500, marking the first time Mercer had finished the season with a winning record since 1999. In the process, the Bears set a new school record with eight shutouts and defeated Southwest Missouri State, who finished the season ranked in the Top 25.

Gibson became the third head coach at Mercer University since 1948 at the start of the 2004 season. Barry Myers hung up his spikes after 26 years at Mercer and the Bears did not have to go far to find their new leader.

In his first campaign as head coach, Gibson led his young squad to a 20-35 record, a nine-win improvement from the previous season. The 2004 Bears had just three seniors on the roster, and of the eight juniors on the squad, only one had played for Mercer in 2003. The rest of the junior class had transferred to Mercer looking for a chance to win.

Mercer opened the 2004 season with a victory over Florida A&M for Gibson's first career win on January 24, 2004. On March 20, 2004, the Bears defeated Jacksonville 2-0, for Gibson's first Atlantic Sun Conference victory. The Bears won two of three games against Troy on April 23-24, 2004 for the first conference series win during the Craig Gibson Era.

Gibson started his career at Mercer as a player. His junior year, the hard-hitting first baseman earned Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Year honors, while leading the Bears to the Atlantic Sun Tournament and a second-place finish in the regular season.

Following his playing career, Gibson served as a graduate assistant coach on Myers' staff. He then took over as the head baseball coach at Jupiter Community High School in Jupiter, Fla., for two years before moving over to Suncoast Community High School in Riviera Beach, Fla., for one season. Gibson wrapped up his high school coaching career in 1993 as the head coach at Palm Beach Gardens High School in Palm Beach, Fla.

In August 1993, Gibson got the call to come home and serve as an assistant under Myers. With his strong ties to Mercer and a wealth of coaching experience, it made Athletics Director Bobby Pope's choice an easy one when he elevated Gibson to the head job following Myers resignation.

During his time as an assistant, Gibson coached four players who were drafted by the Major Leagues and helped lead Mercer to two A-Sun divisional titles. The Bears also advanced to the A-Sun Tournament three times, finishing as high as third in 1999. The 1999 team was one of the best Gibson worked with, finishing in a tie for third place in the A-Sun at 19-11 and going 36-24 overall.

Since 1994, he has also been involved in helping fundraising for Mercer athletics, serving as director of the athletic department annual fund.

On top of his victories on the field, Gibson was a winner in the classroom, earning a bachelor's degree in history and health, physical education and recreation, and a master's of education in social science from Mercer.

A native of Macon, Ga., Gibson and his wife Diane have two children, Tyler and Lindsey.

A Look at the Eagles

Georgia Southern (31-24) has won 10 of its last 13 games since playing Mercer. The Eagles have faced three nationally ranked opponents this season. GSU swept a two-game series over No. 11 Georgia Tech, lost at No. 6 Clemson and dropped two of three against No. 27 College of Charleston. Georgia Southern and Mercer have faced six common opponents this season in Jacksonville, UNF, Kennesaw State, Lipscomb, Georgia State and Bethune-Cookman. GSU took both games against Jacksonville, UNF and Georgia State, dropped a pair versus Kennesaw State, swept a three-game series versus Lipscomb and knocked off BCC in a single game. The Bears took two of three against Jacksonville, UNF and Georgia State, swept a three-game set versus KSU, dropped two of three against the Bisons and was swept in three games at Bethune-Cookman.

Chris Shehan has been the catalyst offensively leading the squad in batting average (.342), run scored (55), doubles (20), total bases (125) and is tied for the lead in home runs with nine. Jeremy Beckham leads the SoCon with 28 stolen bases while being caught only two times.

Head coach Rodney Hennon is in his seventh season at the helm of the Eagles' program. Hennon entered this season with a 261-163 record at GSU and is 342-201-1 overall in his career. He spent two years as the head coach at Western Carolina before taking the post at Georgia Southern.

Georgia Southern leads the all-time series versus Mercer, 112-41. Last season, the Eagles took both games from the Bears winning the first contest 8-3 at Claude Smith Field and taking a 7-3 decision at J.I. Clements Stadium. Mercer took the first game this season as they pounded out 20 hits for the first time in six seasons to defeat GSU, 12-5, in Macon.

Top 25 Wins: Mercer recorded two wins over No. 2 Miami (Fla.) to open the season, but defeating a Top 25 team is no new thing for Coach Gibson's squads. Last season, the Bears defeated No. 1 Florida, 3-2, in Gainesville, Fla. on Feb. 15, and scored a win over No. 1 Clemson, 3-2, in Clemson, S.C. on Feb. 26. The Bears have registered a win over a Top 25 in each of Gibson's first four seasons. In 2004, Mercer defeated No. 19 UCF on May 15, 6-0, and on Apr. 20, 2005, the Bears up-ended No. 19 College of Charleston, 10-2.

Mercer 6, No. 2 Miami (Fla.) 5

Feb. 2, 2007-Coral Gables, Fla.

Mark Light Stadium

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - The Mercer baseball squad opened its 2007 campaign with a bang, scoring two runs in the ninth inning to grab a 6-5 decision over No. 2 Miami on Friday night. Preseason A-Sun Player of the Year Josh Thompson led the way going 4-for-4 with three RBIs, two runs scored, one double and a home run.

The 'Canes wasted no time getting on the board, plating a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning. Mercer right-handed pitcher Brantley New retired the leadoff batter before Roger Tomas and Yonder Alonso followed with back-to-back singles.

With runners at first and third, New struck out right fielder Dennis Raben, but Alonso broke from first and on catcher Josh Thompson's throw to second, Tomas swiped home. Designated hitter Mark Sobolewski then roped an RBI single giving Miami an early 2-0 advantage.

Miami struck again when Alonso added his second hit of the game, a leadoff home run to straight-away center in the third inning.

The Bears played small ball to score their first run of the season in the fourth. Thompson led off with a double to right-center field and advanced to third on a groundout by Eric Renfroe. Mike Armstrong plated Thompson with an infield single, pulling Mercer within two at 3-1.

The 'Canes extended their lead to 5-1 in the fifth as catcher Richard O'Brien laced a two-run single to right, scoring Raben and Gus Menendez.

Mercer cut the deficit to three in the sixth when Thompson belted his first home run of the season over the left-field fence.

Tyler Brown's RBI infield single tacked on another run for the Bears in the seventh and Thompson followed with his third hit of the game, an RBI single to left, pulling Mercer within one at 5-4.

Matt Crawford led off the ninth with a bunt single and Tyler McCarty hit an opposite-field single giving the Bears life in the final frame. Brown advanced Crawford to third with a fielder's choice and Thompson delivered his fourth hit of the night, an RBI single evening up the score, 5-5.

Following a Renfroe stolen base, Mike Armstrong came through with a game-winning RBI single scoring pinch runner Richard Bentley, giving Mercer its first lead of the game, 6-5.

Boone Webster picked up the win throwing three innings of shutout ball while allowing three hits and two strikeouts. Cory Gearrin earned the save in his first appearance as a Bear. Enrique Garcia recorded the loss for Miami giving up two earned runs and four hits in 1.1 innings of work.

Each starter went five innings as New gave up five earned runs on seven hits, and Manny Miguez allowed one earned run and five hits.

Armstrong finished the game 3-for-5 with a pair of RBIs and Jason Lowey went 2-for-4 with one run scored.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - The Mercer baseball squad defeated No. 2 Miami, 8-5, on Saturday night. The Bears were out-hit 10-5, but took advantage of their opportunities in starting the season with their second straight win.

For the second straight night, the Hurricanes (0-2) plated a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning. Senior left-hander Blake Quarles retired the first two batters before Yonder Alonso and Mark Sobolewski delivered back-to-back singles. Following a walk to right fielder Dennis Raben, Gus Menendez recorded a two-run single scoring Alonso and Sobolewski.

Mercer tied the score, 2-2, on Billy Shaughnessy's two-run blast in the fourth inning. Shaughnessy belted senior right-hander Danny Gil's 0-2 offering just inside the foul pole down the left-field line.

Miami took back the lead in the bottom half of the fourth when Jason Lowey came in relief of Quarles. With two outs and the bases loaded, Lowey hit Sobolewski with a pitch, giving the Hurricanes a 3-2 advantage.

The Bears battled back again in the fifth as Matt Crawford led off with a walk and on a nicely executed hit-and-run, Crawford advanced to third on a Tyler McCarty single down the right-field line. With Tyler Brown batting, Gil threw a wild pitch allowing Crawford to score and even up the score at three runs apiece.

Teddy Kaufman relieved Gil with one out in the inning and hit Eric Renfroe with a pitch. The 'Canes then turned to Jason Santana out of the bullpen with the bases loaded and Mike Armstrong at the plate. Armstrong produced an RBI fielder's choice giving Mercer the lead at 4-3.

In the back-and-forth affair, Miami knotted up the score again on a sacrifice fly by Nick Freitas that scored Menendez in the bottom of the fifth. With the score tied a four, the Hurricanes struck again as freshman Ryan Jackson notched his first collegiate hit, scoring Blake Tekotte, and putting Miami back ahead, 5-4.

Mercer took advantage on a pair of Miami miscues in the seventh. McCarty scored when Shaughnessy was hit by a pitch, and Steven Karwatt followed with a high fly ball in front of home plate. Catcher Jason Haggerty and relief pitcher Carlos Gutierrez had some communication problems on the play, and Gutierrez dropped the ball allowing Brown to score the go-ahead run and give the Bears a 6-5 lead.

Armstrong added some insurance with a two-run home run in the ninth.

Andy Campbell registered the win for Mercer throwing two innings of no-hit, shutout relief. Raben was charged with the loss allowing one unearned run in 0.2 innings of work. Cory Gearrin came in and notched his second save in as many days striking out four in the final 1.2 innings

Quarles went three innings and allowed two earned runs on six hits and Hurricanes' starter Danny Gil no-hit the Bears through 3.2 innings, but only retired two more batters before his departure. He allowed four earned runs on three hits while striking out four batters.

Armstrong finished the game 1-for-3 with three RBIs, two runs scored and a home run, and Shaughnessy chipped in three RBIs, one run scored and one home run.

Before yesterday's victory, Mercer's last win over Miami came in 1975 and they were 1-27 all-time versus the Hurricanes. The Bears two wins ensures a series' victory and they will look for a sweep in game three Sunday afternoon at Mark Light Field. First pitch is slated for 1 p.m.

The last time Miami lost its opening series of the season was in 1967 against Florida State.

Eric Renfroe received the third free pass of the frame with the bases loaded, forcing in Armstrong. Jason Lowey followed with a sacrifice fly and Shaughnessy capped the first-inning output with a RBI-single.

South Alabama (2-0) did not waste anytime getting back into the game in the bottom of the first, cutting the deficit to one. For the second straight day USA lead off man Ray Kruml opened the game by reaching base. Kruml advanced to second on a wild pitch and following a walk to Bunky Kateon, each runner moved up a base on a ground out. Jeff Cunningham registered the Jaguars' first big hit of the day with a run-scoring single and an error by Josh Thompson allowed Kateon to cross the plate on the play.

The Bears tacked on a pair of runs in the second inning as catcher Casey Stuart led off with his first hit of the season. Thompson pushed across the Bears' fourth run of the day with a sacrifice fly and Karwatt continued his recent hot streak with a RBI-double to deep center field, giving Mercer a 5-2 cushion early on.

The Jaguars opened their half of the third inning with back-to-back singles by Kateon and Ryne Jernigan. Cunningham delivered another run batted in with a sacrifice fly to right field and Michael Cart added a RBI-ground-out in the inning, pulling South Alabama within one at 5-4. USA had a chance to tie the game later in the inning on a wild pitch by Mercer left-hander Blake Quarles, but David Doss was thrown out at the plate as Stuart hustled after the ball and Quarles applied the tag.

Mercer looked to increase its lead in the fourth, loading the bases with no outs, but USA reliever Stephen Boyd struck out the next two batters and then induced an inning-ending ground out to escape the inning unscathed.

Bill Kleinschrodt opened the South Alabama fourth with a triple and scored on Sean Laird's ground out, evening up the score at five runs apiece.

One inning later, South Alabama put up a six-spot on the scoreboard. Four of the runs were unearned off of two Mercer errors. Doss, Joel Collins and Jernigan each delivered one RBI in the inning and Kaeton plated a pair of runs with a single up the middle.

Feb. 18-Mobile, Ala.

Stanky Field

MOBILE, Ala. - The Mercer (4-5) baseball squad posted seven runs in the last three innings, pulling out a come-from-behind 9-5 victory over South Alabama (2-1) on Sunday afternoon at Stanky Field.

The Bears took an early lead for the second consecutive day as John Dortch got things going in the second inning with a lead-off single. Following a sacrifice bunt by Billy Shaughnessy, Mark Jarvis, making his first start of the season, came through with a run-scoring single.

South Alabama responded as they had all weekend with three runs in the bottom of the second. Mercer right-hander Michael Shaw retired the lead-off man, but the next four USA batters registered singles. Joel Collins and Bill Kleinschrodt recorded back-to-back RBI-singles and Ray Kruml capped the scoring with a sacrifice fly to center field.

Mercer took advantage of South Alabama miscues an inning later. Mike Armstrong led off with a single and following a pair of wild pitches advancing Armstrong to third, Josh Thompson notched a sacrifice fly pulling the Bears within one at 3-2.

Both pitching staff buckled down over the next three innings allowing no runs on only two hits. This was a rarity in the three-game series that saw both teams combine for 50 runs and 68 hits.

The Bears rallied to take a 5-3 lead in the seventh. Billy Shaughnessy started the rally with a lead-off double and three batters later, Shaughnessy scored on a fielder's choice by Matt Crawford. Freshman Michael Langley, who earlier in the series recorded his first career hit and RBI, scored on another fielder's choice groundout, this time by Tyler Brown. Jaguars' shortstop Russell Harben threw the ball away on the play and Crawford scored an unearned run giving Mercer the lead.

In this back-and-forth series, South Alabama countered again in the bottom of the seventh. Clint Toomey recorded a RBI-single and Kruml scored on a ground out by Ryne Jernigan evening the score at five runs apiece.

Mercer took the lead for good in the eighth inning as Dortch led off with a double down the left-field line. Eric Renfroe plated Dortch with a fielder's choice and Armstrong produced another run with a sacrifice fly giving the Bears a 7-5 lead.

Closer Cory Gearrin entered the game in the bottom of the seventh and shut down the Jaguars the rest of the way in picking up his first win as a Bear. He struck out four and walked four, while pitching 2.2 innings of no-hit, shutout ball. Gearrin has yet to allow a hit or run in 7.2 innings of solid relief.

The Bears tacked on some insurance in the ninth spearheaded by Dortch's second double and run scored in as many innings. Shaughnessy drove in Steve Karwatt with a sacrifice fly and Renfroe drove in his second run of the day with a single up the middle.

Shaw went 2.0 innings for Mercer and allowed three earned runs on four hits while striking out two. South Alabama starter Joey Doan pitched a solid game going 6.2 innings while giving up five runs, four earned, on five hits. Doan walked none and struck out five batters. Georgia 6, Mercer 5

Feb. 21-Macon, Ga.
Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - The Bears gave the Bulldogs all they could handle Wednesday night at Claude Smith Field, but were defeated 6-5 in front of a standing-room only crowd. The Georgia bullpen held Mercer in check over the final five innings, allowing only one unearned run, and stranding seven runners on base.

Mercer (4-6) received a big lift as right-hander Boone Webster escaped a jam in the first inning. With the bases loaded and two outs, Webster struck out Ryan Peisel to end the inning.

A wild second inning began when Georgia (1-3) notched four consecutive hits with one out to take a 3-0 lead. Matt Cerione delivered a RBI-double and Gordon Beckham scored two more runs on his double down the left-field line.

The Bears came right back as Eric Renfroe got things going with a one-out double and Jason Lowey followed with a walk. Billy Shaughnessy came through with a big two-run single and he scored on an error by right fielder Cerione to tie the game at three. Dortch drove a single to the opposite-field and Shaughnessy was held by head coach Craig Gibson at third, but Cerione attempted to throw behind the runner and air-mailed the ball to the fence, allowing Shaughnessy to cross the plate.

The 'Dogs took the lead for good in the top of the fourth, as Beckham picked up another run batted in with a single to left field and Jonathan Wyatt followed with a run-scoring single.

Mercer would not go quietly tacking on a run in its half of the fourth, making the score 5-4. Shaughnessy once again was clutch notching a lead-off double. The Bears played small ball as Shaughnessy advanced to third on a sacrifice bunt and scored on Dortch's second hit of the night.

Georgia added some insurance an inning later when Mike Freeman registered the game-winning RBI on a double down the left-field line.

In the eighth inning, the Bears pulled to within one at 6-5. Shaughnessy scored his third run of the game on a heads-up play. Mike Armstrong hit a routine grounder to the shortstop, but Beckham was unable to make the play. While first baseman Ryan Peisel was trying to gather the ball, Shaughnessy alertly took off from third and dove around catcher Joey Lewis's tag.

Matt Crawford kept the game alive for Mercer, recording a bunt single with two outs in the final frame. Lowey followed with a walk, but Georgia's hard-throwing closer Josh Fields notched his third strikeout of the inning to pick up his first save of the season.

Webster (2-1) went 4.0 innings and allowed five earned runs on 11 hits. He struck out one and walked five batters. Nick Montgomery (1-0) picked up starter Dean Weaver and threw 3.0 innings of no-run, one-hit ball. Montgomery fanned three and walked one.

Shaughnessy led the Bears at the plate as he went 2-for-4 with two RBIs to go along with his three runs scored. Dortch finished the game 2-for-4 with one RBI and Steve Karwatt was 2-for-4 with a double to deep-center field in the seventh inning.

"We gave it our best shot and played well," said Gibson. "We need to get more two-out hits against a team of Georgia's caliber. This game should help us down the road when we get into our conference schedule."

Game 11

Mercer 3, Florida A&M 2

Feb. 23-Macon, Ga.
Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - In his first collegiate at-bat, freshman Nick DiMauro notched a run-scoring double in the bottom of the ninth propelling Mercer to a 3-2 win over Florida A&M at Claude Smith Field on Friday evening.

"We were emotionally flat after the big Georgia game on Wednesday," said assistant coach Tim Boeth. "You have got to tip your hat to (Ben) Baylor. He did an outstanding job for them, but this was a much-needed win for us."

The Bears (5-6) started the game off with a bang as Eric Renfroe led off the first inning with a home run to right-center field.

For the second straight inning, Mercer tacked on a run to take an early 2-0 lead. Mike Armstrong reached on an error by shortstop David James and scored on Josh Lowey's first RBI of the season.

The Rattlers (1-11) cut the lead in half in the top of the sixth inning when Thaddous McBurrows doubled home Darryl Evans.

Florida A&M tied the game in the seventh with an unearned run. Gordon hit a routine ground ball to Armstrong at first base, but relief pitcher Andy Campbell dropped Armstrong's toss and Gordon advanced to second on the play. Jared Jeffries then recorded a two-out base hit, evening the score at two runs apiece.

In the bottom of the eighth inning the Bears had a chance to take the lead, but a mistake on the base paths and a fine defensive play by the Rattlers thwarted the potential rally.

With runners on first and second FAMU's left-handed starter Ben Baylor threw a wild pitch, but catcher Elvin Millan made a nice recovery and threw out Matt Crawford at second base. Following an intentional walk to Josh Thompson, Armstrong laced a ball that looked as though it would get through the infield, but third baseman Jared Jeffries ranged to his left and made a nice diving stop. Jeffries threw to second and forced out Thompson to end the inning.

After coming in and recording the final two outs in the top of the ninth, Cory Gearrin led off the bottom of the frame with a single in his first at-bat as a Bear. Dortch followed with a fielder's choice and Josh Lowey notched a single, moving Dortch to second and setting up DiMauro's heroics. DiMauro laced a one-out double into the gap in left-center field and Dortch crossed the plate giving Mercer the win.

Right hander Brantley New picked up a no-decision in his fourth start of the season. He allowed one earned run on six hits in 6.0 innings of work. New struck out eight batters and walked one. Gearrin (2-0) registered the win recording the final two outs in the ninth on a strikeout and a nicely executed pick-off in which Billy Shaughnessy snuck up behind the runner at second and applied the tag.

Baylor pitched a solid game for FAMU going 8.0 innings. He allowed two runs, one earned, on three hits while striking out six and walking two. Austin Dill (0-1) was the losing pitcher. Dill allowed the winning run on three hits while recording only one out.

DELAND, Fla. - After losing the first game of Saturday's doubleheader, 9-1, Mercer rallied for a 4-3 come-from-behind win over Stetson in the series finale at Melching Field.

In the first game of the day the Bears (18-10, 4-2 A-Sun) plated a run in the first inning taking an early lead. Josh Thompson ripped a two-out double down the left field line, extending his hitting streak to 16 games, and Mike Armstrong reached on an error to plate Thompson. Armstrong hit a routine ground ball to second base, but first baseman Justin Bass missed the bag on the play.

Stetson (20-8, 4-2 A-Sun) did not waste anytime answering back with four runs of its own in the bottom half of the first. Shane Jordan led off with an infield single and following a walk, Braedyn Pruitt delivered a RBI single. Then right-hander Boone Webster found himself in a heap of trouble walking consecutive batters, the first loaded the bases and the second forced in a run. Jeremy Cruz delivered the big blow with a two-run double to deep center field and another walk forced Webster to leave the game without making it out of the first inning.

In the second inning, Bass recorded a run-scoring single off of relief pitcher David Harden and Cruz scored Braedyn Pruitt with a base hit later in the frame extending the Hatters' lead to five runs.

Stetson added to its lead when Braedyn Pruitt garnered a two-run homer in the seventh inning and Josh Clendenin garnered a run-scoring single in the eighth.

The Bears had their chances placing a runner in scoring position in every inning except for four frames, but Stetson kept Mercer at bay the rest of the game. The Hatters also stranded 14 batters of their own.

Casey Stuart and Eric Renfroe each notched doubles for the Bears, and Billy Shaughnessy went 2-for-3 with a walk.

Webster (5-2) gave up four runs on three hits while striking out one and walking four in 1/3 of an inning.

Left-hander Chris Ingoglia (4-2) tossed a complete game one-run, six-hitter. The senior southpaw struck

The Bears put together a two-out rally in the fourth cutting the deficit in half. Steve Karwatt recorded a double and Shaughnessy followed with a RBI single.

In the fifth inning, Bass put the Hatters back up by two with a run-scoring single up the middle.

Mercer showed life in the top of the seventh putting runners at first and second with two outs. Stetson brought in closer Robbie Elsemiller (1-1), the A-Sun leader in saves, but Thompson kept his hitting streak alive with a two-run double down the left field line knotting the score at three. The Bears kept it going as Tyler Brown followed with a single and Armstrong came through with a go-ahead RBI single. It was Elsemiller's first blown save this season.

Mar. 27-Macon, Ga.

MACON, Ga. - Led by Mike Bianucci's three hits and four RBIs, Auburn defeated Mercer 5-1 on Tuesday evening at Claude Smith Field.

Mercer evened the score at one in the fourth inning, but Auburn took over from there plating the final four runs in the game. The Bears out-hit the Tigers 8-7, but stranded eight runners on base.

"You have to give them credit, their middle of the lineup stepped up," said head coach Craig Gibson. "Our middle part of the order has not been getting it done lately."

Auburn (19-9) grabbed an early 1-0 lead in the top of the first as Mike Bianucci recorded a run-scoring single up the middle.

The Bears (18-11) had a chance to tie things up in the first two frames, but Josh Thompson and Casey Stuart were thrown out at home in consecutive innings by Bianucci from left field both times.

Mercer played small ball to tie the game at one in the fourth inning. Billy Shaughnessy led off with a walk and advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt by John Dortch. Following a wild pitch by Auburn starter Taylor Thompson that moved Shaughnessy to third base, Stuart delivered with an RBI-double.

The Tigers went back on top in the fifth inning, 3-1, when Bianucci's knocked in another run on a base hit and a sacrifice fly by Joseph Sanders that scored Josh Donaldson.

Stuart was robbed of his third hit in the sixth when second baseman Robert Brooks made an over the shoulder catch while falling to the ground, stranding Steve Karwatt on base.

Bianucci struck again in the seventh belting a two-run homer over the left field fence giving Auburn a decisive 5-1 advantage.

"The lead off walks hurt us," added Gibson. "I am disappointed because I felt if we could keep it close and get to (Cory) Gearrin late, we would have a chance."

Left-hander Blake Quarles went two innings and allowed one run on two hits. The senior southpaw struck out two and walked a pair. Jason Lowey (0-1) followed with 2 1/3 innings of two-run relief and Boone Webster tossed two innings of two-hit, two-run ball in the staff outing. Josh Lowey took over in the seventh and gave up one hit while striking out one in 2/3 of an inning.

Cory Gearrin entered the game in the eighth and fired a pair of scoreless frames. The junior closer registered five strikeouts, moving his season total to 42.

Taylor Thompson (3-0) allowed one run on six hits in a career-high six innings of work. The freshman hurler fanned two batters and walked four.

Mercer 5, Jacksonville 4 (13 Inn.)

Mar. 30-Macon, Ga.

Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - Down 4-3 to A-Sun foe Jacksonville in the bottom of the ninth inning, Mercer was able to tie the score with an RBI-single by Mike Armstrong and Steve Karwatt capped the comeback with a run-scoring single in the 13th inning, giving the Bears a 5-4 win on Friday evening at Claude Smith Field.

"We made some mistakes, but we fought hard and were fortunate to survive this one," said head coach Craig Gibson. "We were confident with Steve (Karwatt) at the plate in that situation, even with two strikes we were confident he would get a good part of the bat on the ball."

The Bears tied up the game at four in the ninth as JU closer Matt Davis blew his first save of the season in five tries. Billy Shaughnessy led off the inning with a double down the right-field line and Josh Thompson advanced him to third with a ground out. Armstrong then scored Shaughnessy with a base hit up the middle.

Mercer (19-11, 4-3 A-Sun) was the beneficiary of 11 walks and managed 16 hits in the contest, but stranded 17 runners on base and made four outs on the base paths including two caught stealing, one pick off and had a runner gunned down at third base.

The Bears' pitching staff did an outstanding job as three pitchers combined to limit the Dolphins to one hit in the last eight innings of the ball game.

Thompson led the way for the Bears with a 3-for-5 effort and one run scored. Mike Armstrong chipped in going 4-for-6 with two RBIs and scored a run, and Andrew Einert, making his second start of the season, went 2-for-4 with a run batted in and crossed the plate once. Karwatt and Jason Lowey each went 2-for-5 as Karwatt drove in two runs.

Jacksonville (17-16, 2-5 A-Sun) took an early 2-0 lead in the opening inning on Mike McCallister's second home run this season. The two-run shot cleared the right-center field fence just in front of the scoreboard.

Mercer answered back with two runs of its own in the bottom half of the first as Armstrong and Einert notched back-to-back run-scoring doubles. Thompson singled in the frame to extend his hitting streak to 19 games.

The Dolphins took the lead right back an inning later stringing together four singles. Logan James and Pete Clifford each delivered RBI-singles in the frame.

In the seventh inning the Bears put together a rally, but left the bases loaded. They nearly put together a crooked number on the scoreboard as Karwatt roped a long foul ball that soared just outside the foul pole in left field and John Dortch placed a ball just foul down the left-field line.

Right-hander Brantley New allowed four runs on seven hits in the first two innings, but settled down after that tossing five shutout frames while striking out seven batters. The senior ace finished the game with nine strikeouts for the sixth time in his career.

Cory Gearrin (3-0) had his usual dominating stuff throwing five innings of one-hit, scoreless relief. The junior closer fanned a career-high six batters and walked one.

On the other side, Jacksonville right-hander Justin Young gave up two runs in the opening inning, but was solid over the next four frames setting down 12 of the 16 batters he faced. Young left the game in the sixth after allowing an RBI-double to deep left center by Karwatt, cutting the Mercer' deficit to one run.

Young completed his outing with six strikeouts and a pair of walks while giving up three runs on nine hits.

Mar. 31-Macon, Ga.

Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - The Mercer baseball squad dropped the front end of Saturday's doubleheader 5-0 at Claude Smith Field, but rebounded for a come-from-behind 7-6 win in 10 innings in the second game of the day.

For the second time in three games, the Bears trailed entering their final at-bat and this time Eric Renfroe delivered a game-tying two-run homer to knot the score at five. The Dolphins scored a run in the top of the 10th to take a 6-5 lead, but Mercer battled back again scoring an unearned run to tie the game and Jason Lowey walked with the bases loaded to force in a run and secure the win. A strong pitching performance by JU right-hander Matt Gardner helped propel the Dolphins to a 5-0 in game one.

Mercer (20-12, 6-3 A-Sun) was never able to get anything going in game one putting together only four base hits, all singles. The Bears only had two runners reach third base in the contest. Gardner (3-2) had a spectacular outing as he tossed a five-hit, complete-game shutout. The junior fanned a pair of Bears and issued one free pass.

The second game featured a battle between two teams primed to compete for the conference title this season as Mercer came out on top to win the series. The Bears foiled their chances in the early going by grounding into three double plays and the Dolphins took advantage of their opportunities hitting .313 with runners in scoring position in the contest.

In the first game of the twin bill, both starting pitchers had it working early as Mercer' starter Boone Webster gave up only two hits in the first four frames and Gardner no-hit the Bears through three innings.

The Bears had their first scoring chance in the fourth inning as Billy Shaughnessy and Mike Armstrong garnered back-to-back singles, putting runners on the corners with one out. Andrew Einert and Steve Karwatt followed with a pair of fly outs to left field to end the frame.

An inning later the Dolphins (19-16, 4-5 A-Sun) put the first runs of the game on the board as Pete Clifford belted his fifth home run this season, a two-run shot over the right-center field fence. JU added to its lead on Jimmy Potucek's solo home run in the sixth inning.

In the eighth, Kevin Ferreira added an RBI-single and Ferreira came around to score when Shaughnessy let Matt Lopez's ground ball skip underneath his glove to give the Dolphins a 5-0 lead they would not relinquish.

Webster (5-3) allowed five runs, four earned, on nine hits in 7 2/3 innings of work. The junior struck out five and walked four batters.

The Dolphins jumped out quickly in the opening inning of game two plating a pair of runs. Clifford started the scoring with a run-scoring single. The second run came courtesy of a crazy play as Ryan McArdle roped a double to left-center field, but the Bears were able to gun down Clifford at home on the play. McArdle advanced to third on the throw home and scored an unearned run when Karwatt was unable to hold onto Josh Thompson's snap throw.

The Bears were able to score their first runs of the day in the bottom of the second. Karwatt got things going with an RBI-double to the gap and following a base hit by John Dortch, two batters later Nick DiMauro drove home Einert with a base hit to center field, evening the score at two runs apiece.

Jacksonville had a chance to re-take the lead an inning later as they had the bases loaded with only one out and cleanup hitter McArdle at the dish, but right-hander Justin Boyette induced a 1-2-3 double play to end the frame.

JU grabbed the lead back, 3-2, when Lopez crossed the plate on Chuck Opachich's fielder's choice ground out in the fifth. The Dolphins added to their advantage an inning later on a run-scoring single from John Tiner.

The Dolphins added more insurance in the eighth on an RBI-double from Potucek making the score 5-2.

Mercer started to chip away in its half of the eighth narrowing the deficit to two runs on a sacrifice fly by Karwatt that plated Armstrong on the play.

Josh Lowey (2-0) tossed 2 2/3 innings of one-run, two-hit relief to help set up the Mercer heroics.

Boyette settled down after allowing two runs, one earned, on two hits and a walk in the first inning. He gave up two runs on seven hits the rest of the way. The junior college transfer finished his outing with four strikeouts and two walks in six innings of work.

JU starter Carson Andrew did not last long going one inning while giving up two runs on four hits. Preseason all-conference selection Matt Dobbins came in and threw 4 1/3 innings of two-hit, shutout relief. Dobbins fanned three batters and walked four in his appearance.

The Dolphins had to go deep into their bullpen using seven pitchers in the game, but Glenn Witkowski (3-3) was charged with the loss allowing a pair of runs, one earned, on two hits.

Karwatt led the way in game two going 3-for-4 with a double, scored a run and produced two RBIs. Einert chipped in with a 2-for-3 effort while crossing the plate once and stroking a double.

Game 33

Georgia State 10, Mercer 8

Apr. 4-Panthersville, Ga.

The Field at Panthersville

PANTHERSVILLE, Ga. - A late rally propelled Georgia State to a 10-8 win over Mercer on Wednesday evening at the Field at Panthersville.

The Bears (20-13) had a three-run lead late in the game, but the Panthers plated five runs on five hits and one key error in the bottom of the seventh inning as Georgia State defeated Mercer for the first time this season in three tries.

Left-hander Blake Quarles gave Mercer a solid outing allowing three runs, two earned, on four hits in four innings of work. The senior southpaw struck out five and walked one.

Josh Lowey (2-1) was tagged with the loss as he gave up two unearned runs on two hits in 2/3 of an inning.

Reliever Tyler Allen (1-0) was the beneficiary of the five-run inning, but also aided the GSU cause with 1 1/3 innings of one-hit, scoreless relief.

Kevin Dooley notched his second save tossing two-innings of no-hit, shutout ball. Dooley struck out five of the six batters he faced.

Georgia State (15-15) struck first in the battle between former conference foes as Eric Suttle and Jean Rochon-Salvas registered back-to-back singles to begin the bottom of the first. Center fielder Eric Renfroe mishandled the ball on Rochon-Salvas's base hit allowing Suttle to score the first run of the game. Two batters later Rochon-Salvas scored on a sacrifice fly giving the Panthers an early two-run lead.

The Bears have shown a great amount of resiliency all season and came right back with a four-run second inning. Mercer garnered three consecutive hits to open the frame as Mike Armstrong led off with a solo home run, Andrew Einert singled and Steve Karwatt followed with a double advancing Einert to third base.

With one out, Einert came around to score on a John Dortch sacrifice fly and Langley then delivered the his first of his three hits on the evening. Eric Renfroe came up in a run-producing situation and came through with an RBI-single, and Matt Crawford, back from injury and seeing action for the first time in 11 contests, capped the inning with a run-scoring base hit.

Billy Shaughnessy tacked onto the Bears' lead an inning later scoring Karwatt with a double to left center. Josh Thompson, who has hit safely in 21 of his last 22 games, gave Mercer a 6-2 lead with a run-scoring single in the fourth inning.

Luke Gordon hit his fifth round-tripper to lead off the fifth narrowing the GSU deficit to three runs.

Mercer attempted to put the game away with a pair of runs in the sixth, but Georgia State came to life in its half of the seventh putting a five-spot on the board. The Bears had a chance to escape the jam as the Panthers had two runners on with two outs, but an error led to four unearned runs and a 10-8 lead that Dooley made stand.

Langley led the way for the Bears going 3-for-3 with two runs scored. Renfroe also crossed the plate twice as six Mercer starters scored a run.

Thompson and Karwatt, each of whom is tied for the team lead with 11 multi-hit games, continued to swing the bat well. Thompson chipped in with a 2-for-4 effort including a pair of RBIs and Karwatt was 2-for-3 with one run scored, two walks and a double.

Lipscomb 12, Mercer 7 (10 Inn.)

Apr. 6-Macon, Ga.

Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - The Mercer baseball squad had a three-run lead late in the game, but Lipscomb battled back and eventually won, 12-7, in 10 innings on a cold Friday evening at Claude Smith Field.

Mercer (20-14, 6-4 A-Sun) took a 7-4 lead into the eighth inning, but Lipscomb plated a run in the eighth and a pair in the ninth to send the game into extra innings. The Bison then exploded for a five-run 10th inning to run away with the win.

Junior closer Cory Gearrin (3-1) experienced his worst appearance as a Bear giving up seven runs, six earned, on two hits in 1 2/3 innings. Gearrin struck out four and walked four batters.

The Bison made the Bears pay for not closing the door earlier in the game as they produced five runs behind two walks, a pair of hit by pitches, two singles and an error in the 10th frame.

Eric Renfroe led the way for Mercer reaching base all six times at the plate going 3-for-3 with two runs scored, a pair of RBIs, two doubles and walked three times. Mike Armstrong chipped in with a 5-for-6 effort including three doubles, giving him a team-high 14 two-baggers.

Lipscomb (17-15, 3-4 A-Sun) got off to a quick start plating three two-out runs in the opening frame, two of which were unearned. Following a double and a walk, Justin Sanders registered a run-scoring single. An error allowed Ryan Wilkins to cross the plate and Sanders scored on a wild pitch.

The Bears managed a run in the bottom half of the first on Josh Thompson's RBI-single narrowing the deficit to two runs.

An inning later, Mercer took the lead putting five runs on the board. The first five batters of the frame reached base as Billy Shaughnessy led off with a single, John Dortch walked, Mark Jarvis garnered a run-scoring base hit, Michael Langley earned a free pass and Renfroe followed with a two-run double. Matt Crawford then drove in a run with a ground out and Renfroe crossed the plate to cap the scoring when left fielder Allen Bolden dropped Thompson's long fly ball.

The Bison scored a run in the sixth on a passed ball allowing Branden Cadavid to cross the plate, but the Bears were able to grab the run right back as Armstrong scored another unearned run when first baseman Ryan Wilkins could not come up with a Steve Karwatt ground ball.

Lipscomb scored another two-out run in the eighth as Andrew Nickerson notched an RBI-single making the score 7-5, and they evened up the score in the ninth inning by way of a hit by pitch with the bases loaded and a wild pitch that allowed the game-tying run to score.

Right-hander Brantley New settled down after a rough start, but was saddled with another no-decision. The senior ace gave up four runs, one earned, on five hits in six innings of work. New fanned three batters and walked four.

Lipscomb starter Josh Spicer lasted only 1 1/3 innings allowing six runs on six hits and three walks. Brandon McClurg (3-1) came into the contest second in the league with a 2.28 ERA and performed extremely well tossing 8 2/3 innings of seven-hit, one-run ball. The only run McClurg allowed was unearned. The sophomore right-hander struck out six and walked five.

Games 35-36

Game 1 - Lipscomb 7, Mercer 2

Game 2 - Mercer 5, Lipscomb 4

Apr. 7-Macon, Ga.

Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - In the first game of Saturday's twin bill at Claude Smith Field Lipscomb defeated Mercer, 7-2, but the Bears were able to salvage the series with a 5-4 victory in the finale.

The Bison (18-16, 4-5 A-Sun) put together a four-run third inning in game one and cruised from there to pick up their third consecutive win. Freshman left-hander Rex Brothers (6-1) tossed a gem for the Bison allowing two runs, one earned, on four hits in eight innings of work. Brothers struck out 11 batters and walked three.

The Bears jumped out to a three-run lead in the second game of the day, but Lipscomb chipped away and was able to tie the game at four on a solo home run by Andrew Nickerson. In the bottom of the ninth, Mercer recorded three consecutive two-out singles and Steve Karwatt provided the all important one to score Mike Armstrong and end the game. It was Karwatt's second walk-off base hit in as many week-ends.

"It was a hard-fought series and each game could have gone either way," said head coach Craig Gibson. "Our pitching worked hard all weekend and winning this last game kind of salvaged the series for us."

In game one, Mercer (21-15, 7-5 A-Sun) fell behind in an early hole for the second straight day as right-hander Boone Webster was tagged for four runs on four hits in the third inning. Lipscomb notched three consecutive run-scoring base hits in the frame. The first came way of Allen Bolden's RBI-single, Caleb Joseph followed with his league-leading 18th double to plate a run and Ryan Wilkins capped the output with a run-scoring base hit.

Karwatt put the Bears on the scoreboard with a solo home run in the fourth inning. The round-tripper was sophomore's fifth of the season. The Bears plated an unearned run an inning later as Casey Stuart scored from third when Brothers' threw the ball away on a pick off attempt at first base.

Lipscomb tacked on some insurance in the eighth inning when pinch hitter Andrew Nickerson delivered a two-run double and Casey Bond plated Nickerson with a two-bagger to essentially put away the Bears.

Webster (5-4) was solid except for the third frame as he gave up six runs, four of which were earned, on seven hits in seven innings while fanning six and walking a pair.

Armstrong opened the scoring in game two with a two-out, run-scoring single in the bottom of the first inning giving the Bears an early 1-0 lead. Lipscomb answered right back with a two-out RBI of its own in the second inning to tie the game at one.

The Bears did not waste anytime regaining the lead in the bottom of the second when Nick DiMauro came through with a run-scoring single up the middle and following a walk to Eric Renfroe, Matt Crawford notched a sacrifice fly giving the Bears a two-run advantage.

Mercer added to its lead with an unearned run in the fourth frame as Crawford laced an RBI-single just over the outstretched glove of second baseman Andrew Nickerson.

In the fifth inning, the Bison narrowed the deficit to one run. Ben Williams' RBI-single through the left side of the infield started the scoring. Williams then proceeded to steal second and advanced to third base on a balk by Mercer starter Justin Boyette. Williams eventually came around to score on a base hit by Bolden.

The Bears wasted a chance to tack onto the lead in the sixth as they had the bases loaded with one out, but a foul out and a caught stealing spoiled the rally. The Bison took advantage the next inning when Nickerson led off with his first homer this season. Boyette scattered 11 hits over eight innings and gave up four runs. The junior struck out five and walked none. Josh Lowey (3-1) earned the win with a scoreless ninth inning.

Lipscomb's game two starter Taylor Merry kept the Bison in the game after allowing four runs, three earned, on six hits in 5 2/3innings of work. Merry fanned three batters and issued four free passes.

Charles Williams (1-3) was tagged with the loss, but the final run was the only one he allowed in three innings on the mound.

Renfroe reached base four times for the Bears with a single and three walks in the contest, and Armstrong and Andrew Einert each went 2-for-5.

Auburn 22, Mercer 6

Apr. 10-Auburn, Ala.
Samford Stadium

AUBURN, Ala. - The Mercer baseball squad ran into a buzz saw in the Auburn Tigers on Tuesday evening and was cut down, 22-6, at Samford Stadium.

Auburn (24-12) plated 11 runs on 11 hits through three innings of play en route to defeating Mercer for the second time this season.

The Bears (21-16) cashed in on their early opportunity courtesy of some small ball. Matt Crawford led off the game with an infield single and proceeded to steal second base. Billy Shaughnessy then laid down a nicely executed sacrifice bunt advancing Crawford to third and Josh Thompson followed with a sacrifice fly to give Mercer an early 1-0 lead.

Auburn was able to answer right back with six runs on six hits in its half of the first inning. Luke Greinke extended his hitting streak to 11 games with a RBI single and the Tigers scored an unearned run when Thompson threw the ball away attempting to gun down Josh Donaldson's stolen base attempt at third base.

Robert Brooks knocked in a run with an infield single, Joseph Sanders laced a run-scoring single to left field and Eric Skinner plated a pair with another base hit to drive in the final runs of the six-run frame.

The Tigers scored again on a sacrifice fly from Sanders in the second inning and added another unearned run an inning later as Greinke registered his second run-scoring base hit in the game. Later in the third frame, Donaldson kept the onslaught going with a two-run double and Dustin Spruill garnered a sacrifice fly giving Auburn a 10-run advantage.

Mercer managed a run in the fourth on a RBI single from Mark Jarvis and John Daugherty recorded a pinch-hit, run-scoring base hit the following inning. Daugherty picked up his second RBI with a ground out in the seventh frame. Tyler Brown produced another run-scoring ground out and John Dortch capped the Bears' scoring with a RBI base hit.

Auburn notched its final 11 runs of the game via a run-scoring infield single by Greinke, a pair of two-run base hits from Spruill, a two-run homer and RBI two-bagger from Sanders, a sacrifice fly by Andy Bennett, a RBI ground out from Brooks and a run-scoring single off the bat of Ryan Jenkins.

Crawford led the Bears with a 3-for-4 effort including two runs scored and a pair of stolen bases. John Dortch went 3-for-5 with one RBI and crossed the plate once, and Casey Stuart added a pair of doubles.

The Tigers' big guns delivered as Greinke finished the game 4-for-4 with two RBIs, three runs scored and one stolen base, and Donaldson was 3-for-4 with three runs batted in, one double, a stolen base and scored three times.

Auburn starter Evan Crawford (4-3) enjoyed a solid outing tossing four innings of two-run, five-hit ball. The sophomore southpaw struck out a pair and walked one batter.

Senior left-hander J.C. Daugherty (0-2) was hit hard giving up seven runs, six earned, on eight hits in one inning of work.

Game 38

Belmont 6, Mercer 5

Apr. 14-Nashville, Tenn.
Greer Stadium

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Designated hitter Derek Wiley recorded a game-tying three-run homer in the eighth inning and garnered a walk-off RBI single in the bottom of the ninth in leading Belmont to a 6-5 win over Mercer in the series opener on Saturday afternoon at Greer Stadium.

Right-hander Brantley New helped set the tone in the early going in the crucial A-Sun series as the Bears and Bruins came in tied for third place in the conference standings. The senior ace gave up five runs on eight hits in seven strong innings while striking out five and walking a pair, but was tagged with another hard-luck no-decision.

Belmont came into the game leading the Atlantic Sun in home runs and Derek Wiley belted his sixth of the year, a three-run shot, to tie the game at five in the bottom of the eighth and Wiley delivered the game-winning RBI with the bases loaded and no outs in the ninth.

Mercer (21-17, 7-6 A-Sun) executed well and was able to produce timely at-bats in the contest. The Bears scored a run in the third, a pair in the fifth, one in the seventh and another in the eighth inning. They pounded out nine of their 11 hits in those four frames.

The top three hitters in the Bears' lineup, Matt Crawford, Eric Renfroe and Josh Thompson, set the table going a combined 7-for-14 with three runs scored and three RBIs.

Following a pair of scoreless frames to open the contest, the Bears notched a run on three hits in the third inning. Michael Langley led off with a single, stole second base and advanced to third on a base hit by Renfroe. Thompson then delivered a run-scoring single through the left side of the infield to give Mercer an early one-run advantage.

Later in the frame the Bears were victims of some bad luck on a bizarre double play. They had runners at first and second base with one out and Mike Armstrong at the dish. Armstrong hit a pop fly just off the infield dirt, but with the swirling winds second baseman Daniel Wagner dropped the ball. Thompson and Renfroe had retreated assuming the ball would be caught, but Wagner recovered following the drop to force out Thompson at second and shortstop Packy Elkins made a nice throw to double off Renfroe at third base.

Mercer added to its lead in the fifth inning stringing together four consecutive two-out base hits. Crawford started the rally with a double down the right-field line and Renfroe followed with an RBI single. Thompson then registered an infield single and Armstrong plated Renfroe with a base hit giving the Bears a 3-0 lead.

The Bruins (19-14, 8-5 A-Sun) garnered its first true scoring threat of the game in the sixth inning loading the bases with two outs. Ben Petsch, the team's leader in RBIs, came through driving in two runs with a base hit to pull Belmont within one run.

The Bears answered right back with runs in the seventh and eighth inning adding a little cushion to the lead. Andrew Einert picked up a run batted in with a bases loaded walk allowing Crawford to cross the plate for the second time in the game, and an inning later Mercer scored an unearned run when Langley crossed the plate on Renfroe's triple to the left-center field gap putting the Bears ahead, 5-2.

Mercer looked as though they had control of the game, but let another late lead slip away.

Belmont starter Charles Lee allowed four runs on 10 hits in six innings of work. The senior right-hander fanned seven batters and walked two. Ben Meador came in relief to pick up the win (4-4) tossing three innings of one-hit, one-run ball. The only run Meador allowed was unearned.

Josh Lowey (3-2) gave up the winning run on five hits in one inning on the mound.

Apr. 16-Nashville, Tenn.

Greer Stadium

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - The Mercer baseball squad produced a 5-4 win in the first game of the day, but Belmont held on for a 9-8 victory in 10 innings in the rubber match on Monday afternoon at Greer Stadium. Belmont took the series two games to one.

Belmont (20-15, 9-6 A-Sun) jumped out in front with two first-inning runs in game one, but Mercer (22-18, 8-7 A-Sun) rallied scoring a pair in the fifth and took the lead with a three-spot in the eighth inning. The Bruins attempted to come back once again tallying two runs in the bottom half of the eighth, but the Bears hung tough to pull out the win.

Boone Webster (6-4) who had not won since Mar. 17 gave up two runs in the first inning, but settled down after that. The junior right-hander finished his day allowing four runs on eight hits in 7 2/3 innings. Webster struck out three and walked a pair.

Senior left-hander Blake Quarles came in relief of Webster and nailed down the first save of his career. The crafty southpaw threw 1 1/3 innings of no-hit, shutout ball and struck out one.

In the second game of the day, Belmont scored five runs in the first inning and added a pair in the third, but Mercer managed five runs in the seventh inning to narrow the deficit.

The bullpen came on strong following the early hole Mercer dug themselves into as David Harden, Michael Shaw, Andy Campbell and Jason Lowey combined to throw 5 2/3 innings of shutout relief. Mike Armstrong then delivered a clutch three-run homer in the ninth inning to tie the game at eight runs apiece and send the affair into extra innings.

The Bruins rebounded in the 10th frame to garner the victory. Ben Petsch walked to lead off the inning and the next batter, Kane Simmons, was hit by a pitch. Carlo Testa sacrificed Petsch and Simmons to third and second base, respectively, and Packy Elkins followed with a single to plate Petsch and end the game.

In game one of Monday's doubleheader, the Bruins kept momentum going from their come-from-behind win in Saturday's contest taking a two-run first-inning lead. Matt Reynolds singled to open the frame and Testa followed with a walk. Two batters later, Derek Wiley singled to load the bases with one out. Petsch then recorded a sacrifice fly to score Reynolds and the Bears committed an error allowing Testa to cross the plate.

Mercer tied up the game at two in the fifth inning while notching five hits. Andrew Einert, who has solidified himself as a mainstay in the middle of the Mercer lineup, led off with a double and advanced to third base on a wild pitch. Billy Shaughnessy made up for his error in the first frame with an RBI single and following a base hit from Steve Karwatt, Casey Stuart stayed hot with a run-scoring double.

The Bears put together some two-out thunder to take a 5-2 lead in the top of the eighth inning. With runners at second and third base and two outs, Einert roped his second double of the game to score pinch runner Jason Lowey and Josh Thompson, and Shaughnessy followed suit with his second RBI single in the game.

Belmont responded in its half of the eighth cutting the deficit to one run. The Bruins continued to feast off the long ball in 2007 as Wilson Tucker belted his sixth of the season, a two-run shot, making the score 5-4.

Einert and Shaughnessy led the way in game one as each went 2-for-4 in the contest. Einert scored a pair of runs and recorded two RBIs while Shaughnessy knocked in two runs and crossed the plate once. Thompson chipped in going 2-for-3 and scored a run, and Matt Crawford continued to set the table at the top of the lineup with a 2-for-5 effort.

Belmont starter Josh Moffitt tossed six solid innings giving up two runs on seven hits while striking out seven batters. Brandon Paetznick (0-1) was responsible for the three-run eighth inning and was tagged with the loss.

For the second consecutive game Belmont scored in its first at-bat, this time a five-run output to begin the series finale. Reynolds led off the game with a home run, his seventh of the season, Daniel Wagner reached on an error and Tucker doubled down the left-field line to open the frame. Wiley then notched a two-run single and Simmons garnered an RBI triple to lift right-hander Justin Boyette from the game. Boyette recorded only one out in the frame while yielding five runs, four earned, on four hits. Matt Wornat capped the scoring with a run-scoring base hit.

Wiley led off the third inning with his seventh homer and Wornat picked up his second run batted in later in the frame to give Belmont a seven-run advantage.

The first five batters reached base in the seventh frame for the Bears kick-starting the five-run rally and narrowing the Bruins' lead to 7-5. Eric Renfroe led off with an infield single, Stuart notched another RBI double, John Dortch walked, Michael Langley drove in a run with a two-bagger and Crawford garnered a free pass. Two batters later, Thompson came up with the bases loaded and came through with a two-run double, and Armstrong capped the scoring with an RBI ground out.

The Bruins added another run in the eighth frame giving them an 8-5 lead. Elkins tripled to set up the opportunity and Brady Manifold plated Elkins with a bunt.

Carlo Testa tossed six innings of eight-hit, five-run baseball for the Bruins while striking out three and walking three. Chris Manning (2-0) gave up the home run to Armstrong, but came back to record a scoreless 10th inning and get the win.

Armstrong came up huge with his three-run round tripper driving four runs overall while going 2-for-5 at the plate. Thompson enjoyed his second multi-hit game of the day going 2-for-3 with a pair of RBIs and scored a run. Langley finished the contest 2-for-5 with a run scored and an RBI, and Renfroe came in off the bench providing a spark going 2-for-3 and scored a run.

Quarles (0-2) was charged with the winning run to take the loss.

Game 41 Mercer 12, Georgia Southern 5 Apr. 17-Macon, Ga. Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - The Mercer baseball squad fed off some nifty glove work and clutch hitting from senior center fielder Eric Renfroe en route to a 12-5 win over Georgia Southern on Tuesday evening at Claude Smith Field. The Bears pounded out 20 hits in the win. The last time Mercer racked up 20 or more hits in a game was Apr. 27, 2001, when they recorded 23 in a 16-8 win at Samford.

Mercer (23-18) notched seven runs on 10 hits following two innings of play and cruised to the non-conference win over their intra-state rivals for the first time since Apr. 12, 2005 in Statesboro.

Renfroe had a night going 3-for-4 with two RBIs, three runs scored and a home run. Thompson chipped in going 3-for-5 with two RBIs, two runs scored and a homer. Also enjoying multi-hit games were Mike Armstrong, Billy Shaughnessy, John Daugherty and Tyler Brown.

Right-hander Justin Boyette was only able to record one out in Monday's series finale at Belmont and was right back on the mound in tonight's contest. Boyette escaped a jam in the first inning as Georgia Southern began the game with back-to-back singles from Matt Miller and Chris Shehan. Following a ground out, the Eagles had runners at second and third with one out, but Boyette sandwiched a walk between a pair of strikeouts to retire the side.

The Bears struck first in their half of the opening frame taking a two-run lead. With one out, Renfroe and Thompson belted back-to-back solo home runs. It marked the first time Mercer recorded back-to-back shots since May 21, 2005 when Daniel Hurst and Thompson performed the feat.

Shaughnessy led off the next inning for Mercer with a triple that nearly cleared the fence for another homer. The junior shortstop came around to score on Matt Crawford's RBI ground out. Later in the frame the Bears strung together five consecutive two-out singles. Renfroe, Thompson and Armstrong each picked up their second hit of the contest with Armstrong's knocking in a run. Steve Karwatt followed with a two-run base knock and Brown put Mercer up 7-0 with a run-scoring single.

Georgia Southern (20-21) was able to get on the board when Kyle Blackburn led off the fourth inning with a home run, his fourth of the season. Later in the inning, Jeremy Beckham knocked in a run with a double down the left-field line narrowing the deficit to five. Renfroe saved a run with a highlight-reel diving catch of the bat of Miller to end the inning.

The Eagles added another run in their attempt to chip away one inning later. Blackburn registered his second RBI of the game with a run-scoring single through the right side of the infield. The Bears continued their stellar defensive play turning a 4-6-3 double play to end the frame.

Renfroe delivered again in the bottom of the fifth recording his third hit in four at-bats and knocking in his second run to put the Bears back up by five. Thompson followed with his third hit and second RBI of the game on a single up the middle.

Miller plated a run in the sixth and eighth innings for GSU and Mercer tacked on three runs in the seventh courtesy of an RBI single of the bat of Armstrong

Game 2 - Mercer 4, UNF 3 (10 Inn.)

Apr. 21-Jacksonville, Fla.

Harmon Stadium

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The Mercer baseball squad played a solid all-around game to defeat UNF 10-0 in the first game of Saturday's doubleheader at Harmon Stadium. The Bears registered a 4-3 come-from-behind victory in extra innings to clinch the series.

Right-hander Brantley New (4-3) tossed a gem in the first game of the twin bill. The senior ace pitched a complete-game, three-hit shutout. He struck out five and walked two batters.

Tyler Brown provided the damage offensively going 3-for-4 with a career-high four RBIs, two runs scored and a homer. Billy Shaughnessy finished game one 2-for-4 and scored two runs and Steve Karwatt also went 2-for-4 with an RBI and crossed the plate twice.

In game two Mercer fell behind 3-1, but tied up the score in the seventh and plated the go-ahead run in the 10th inning taking advantage of two UNF miscues. With one out Eric Renfroe struck out, but reached first on a wild pitch and advanced to third on a Josh Thompson base hit. Renfroe came around to score the winning run when shortstop Mycal Jones mishandled Mike Armstrong's ground out.

The Bears (25-18, 10-7 A-Sun) looked sharp in the opening frame of game one plating a pair of runs. Matt Crawford singled to start the game and the next batter, Renfroe, walked. Following a wild pitch advancing the runners second and third base, Thompson delivered a two-run double to the gap in left-center field.

Brown extended the Mercer lead to four runs with a two-out, two-run homer in the fourth frame, and two innings later the Bears tacked on four more runs aided by four consecutive hits and three walks.

Mike Armstrong started things with a double and Steve Karwatt drove him in with a single to center field. Shaughnessy then notched a base hit and Brown followed with an RBI single, knocking in his third run of the contest.

Tom Martin came in relief of starter Brad Johnson (3-6) and proceeded to walk two straight batters, the latter walk forced in a run. Tucker Pryor relieved Martin and did not fare any better throwing strikes walking Crawford to force in another run.

Mercer continued to pound the ball plating a pair of runs in the seventh inning. Brown continued his tear producing a run-scoring single and John Dortch provided a sacrifice fly putting the Bears up 10-0.

Game two remained scoreless through three innings, but the Bears got it going in the fourth frame taking a 1-0 lead. Armstrong led off with a single and Brown stayed hot with a base hit. Karwatt plated Mercer's first run with a sacrifice fly and Shaughnessy followed with another hit, but Brown overran third base on the play and was tagged out by third baseman Chad Knight. Knight then threw over to second base and gunned down Shaughnessy for the 7-5-4 double play to end the inning.

UNF (16-27, 6-11 A-Sun) scored its first run of the day to tie the game at one in the fifth inning. TJ Thompson registered a lead-off single and advanced to third when Mercer starter Boone Webster threw the ball away on a pick off attempt. James Belyea made the Bears pay driving in Thompson with a ground out.

The Ospreys took the lead later in the frame as Jones produced an RBI fielder's choice with the bases loaded and Martin scored an unearned run to give UNF a 3-1 advantage.

The Bears made their charge in the seventh as the first four batters reached base. Brown garnered a single, Karwatt doubled, Shaughnessy was hit by a pitch and pinch hitter Andrew Einert drew a bases loaded walk to force in a run. Head coach Craig Gibson sent up another pinch hitter in John Daugherty and the junior drove in a run with a ground out to tie the game at three.

Webster did not allow a run besides the three he gave up in the fifth inning. Only two of the three runs were earned as the junior surrendered five hits in 6 2/3 innings while striking out five and walking three.

Josh Lowey (4-2) picked up the win throwing two innings of no-hit, shutout relief. Cory Gearrin recorded his ninth save of the season with a 1-2-3 10th inning

Right-hander Derek Bell gave up three runs on seven hits in seven innings of work. Bell fanned one and issued three free passes. Tyler Shohr (0-5) was tagged with the loss after allowing the winning run to score in the extra frame.

Brown and Shaughnessy each picked up a pair of hits in the second game. Brown finished the day 5-for-9 with four RBIs and three runs scored and Shaughnessy went 4-for-7 in the two contests.

UNF 8, Mercer 2

Apr. 22-Jacksonville, Fla.

Harmon Stadium

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The Mercer baseball squad was not able to complete a three-game sweep at UNF as the Ospreys took the series finale 8-2 on Sunday afternoon at Harmon Stadium.

UNF left-hander John Atteo (5-3) limited Mercer to four hits in eight innings of one-run ball. The freshman southpaw struck out seven and walked three batters.

The Ospreys put together a three-run first inning and the Bears were never able to recover, but Mercer still took the series two games to one.

UNF struck first in the series finale as Jimmy Glanville belted his team-high fifth home run of the season, a towering three-run shot over the scoreboard in left field. Right-hander Justin Boyette came in having only walked seven batters in 57 2/3 innings, but issued free passes to the first two UNF batters leading to the blast.

The Bears (25-19, 10-8 A-Sun) flashed some leather in the second inning keeping the deficit at three. The Ospreys put together a nice hit-and-run that started with Andrew Hannon breaking from first base. Designated hitter TJ Thompson showed bunt, pulled back and roped a ball into the gap in right-center field, but John Dortch ran the ball down, fired a strike to cutoff man Michael Langley and Langley gunned down Hannon at the plate. With Thompson at third base and two outs, left fielder Matt Crawford made a stellar catch at the warning track going back on the ball to end the frame.

The Ospreys (17-27, 7-11 A-Sun) extended their lead to 4-0 with an RBI single from Chad Knight in the third inning. UNF kept it going the following frame adding two runs on back-to-back run-scoring singles courtesy of Mycal Jones and Jon Dandridge.

Mercer was able to manage a run in the sixth inning cutting the lead to five runs. Crawford led off the inning with a single and came around to score on a Mike Armstrong ground out.

Glanville notched his second round tripper of the game in the bottom of the seventh, this time a two-run jack giving him five RBIs in the contest.

The Bears plated their final run in the final inning as pinch hitter Andrew Einert drove in Steve Karwatt, who led off the frame with a double.

Boyette (4-3) surrendered four runs on five hits in three innings while striking out a pair and walking three.

Apr. 24-Macon, Ga.
Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - The Mercer baseball squad fell to Savannah State 8-3 on Tuesday evening at Claude Smith Field.

Mercer's (25-20) offense sputtered putting only five runners in scoring position the entire game.

Tigers' starter Marcus Cortes (5-7) faced the minimum through three innings and finished his outing with a stellar effort. The senior right-hander surrendered three runs on eight hits in 8 2/3 innings of work. Cortes fanned four and walking five batters.

Savannah State (27-20) put a pair of runs on the board in the second inning on Timothy Waime's two-run double plating Brandon Jarvis and Christopher Pheathan.

In the early going the Bears fell victim to the double-play ball as the Tigers put together a twin-killing in each of the first three frames.

The Tigers went up 3-0 in the fifth inning on Kyle Wilkerson's first home run of the season, a solo shot over the right-field fence. SSU tacked on an unearned run in the sixth frame to take a four-run lead.

The Bears mounted a rally in the bottom of the seventh loading the bases with one out, but a fly out and a ground out ended the threat.

Savannah State put the game away with a three-run eighth inning. Wilkerson came up with the bases loaded and proceeded to drive in his second, third and fourth runs of the game with a bases-clearing double.

In the eighth inning, Mercer finally put a run on the board. Pinch hitter John Daugherty led off with a double and Matt Crawford followed with an RBI single.

Alfred Arnold provided the final damage with a run-scoring double in the final inning. Tyler Brown belted a solo homer to deep center and Crawford provided another RBI single in the ninth frame, but it was too little, too late for the Bears.

Mike Armstrong and Crawford had the only multi-hit games for Mercer. Crawford was 3-for-5 with two runs batted in and Armstrong finished the affair 2-for-4.

Left-hander Blake Quarles (0-3) worked 4 2/3 innings and allowed three runs on three hits while striking out three and walking three.

Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - Sophomore Steve Karwatt drove in his team-high seventh game-winning RBI in the eighth inning and senior right-hander Brantley New tossed a gem in helping Mercer defeat Kennesaw State 2-1 on Friday evening at Claude Smith Field.

New (5-3) out-duced KSU starter Kyle Heckathorn surrendering just one run on five hits in eight innings of work. The senior ace fanned seven and walked one.

Heckathorn (4-2) was solid as well, but was tagged with the loss after giving up two runs on nine hits in seven innings while striking out four and issuing one free pass.

In the eighth inning, the Bears loaded the bases with just one hit. Eric Renfroe started the rally with an infield single, Josh Thompson followed with a walk and each runner advanced a base on a wild pitch. Following a strikeout, Tyler Brown was intentionally walked to set up Karwatt's heroics. The sophomore slugger drove a sacrifice fly to left-center field allowing Renfroe to score the go-ahead run.

Junior Cory Gearrin picked up his 10th save after striking out a pair in a scoreless ninth inning.

Mercer (26-20, 11-8 A-Sun) scored the first run of the game in the second inning on Billy Shaughnessy's two-out double that plated a hustling Andrew Einert.

The Bears had chances to add on to their lead in the second and fourth frames recording a pair of hits in each inning, but two double plays allowed Heckathorn to escape without any damage.

Mercer flashed some leather of its own in the early going. Zack Upton was hit by a pitch to lead off the second, but the Bears turned a nifty 6-4-3 twin-killing and in the fifth inning Matt Crawford made a stellar catch at the left-field fence to preserve the lead.

Kennesaw State (24-19, 7-9 A-Sun) tied up the contest in the fifth when the leading hitter in the A-Sun, Jacob Robbins, laced a two-out, RBI single to left field.

The Bears squandered an opportunity in the bottom of the seventh as they had runners at first and third with one out, but pinch runner Richard Bentley was thrown out at the plate on Michael Langley's chopper to third base. Crawford then flew out to center to end the frame.

Brown and Einert each went 2-for-3 in the contest and Mike Armstrong chipped in with a 2-for-4 effort.

Game 2 - Mercer 13, Kennesaw State 7
Apr. 28-Macon, Ga.

Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - The Mercer baseball squad took the first game of Saturday's doubleheader at Claude Smith Field 4-3 to clinch the series and completed the three-game sweep with a 13-7 win in the series finale.

In game one, Kennesaw State took a three-run lead into the sixth inning, but aided by a Josh Thompson home run Mercer put a three-spot on the board to tie the contest.

The Bears (28-20, 13-8 A-Sun) took the lead for good the following inning. With one out, Matt Crawford beat out a grounder to short for an infield single, proceeded to steal second base and advanced to third on an overthrow by catcher Jace Whitmer. The next batter, Billy Shaughnessy, registered the game-winning run batted in with a double to deep left field.

The first game of the twin bill also featured solid outings from Mercer right-hander Boone Webster and KSU lefty Casey Rogers. Webster gave up three runs on eight hits in six innings of work. The junior fanned two and issued four free passes. Rogers allowed three runs on four hits in 5 2/3 innings while striking out three and walking one.

In the series finale, Mercer enjoyed a 7-2 lead following two innings of play and hung on for the win. The Bears out-hit the Owls 20-12 in the high-scoring affair. It marked the second time in eight games that Mercer recorded 20 or more hits.

Crawford and Shaughnessy led the way in the doubleheader. Crawford finished the day 6-for-10 with four runs scored and a stolen base, and Shaughnessy chipped in going 6-for-9 with three RBIs and crossed the plate four times and was stupendous in the field making numerous web gems throughout the day.

Following a pair of scoreless frames to open game one, the Owls took a 1-0 lead. The top two batting average leaders in the A-Sun, Jacob Robbins and Martin Baker, began the inning with back-to-back singles. Baker then scored his team-high 47th run on a single by Whitmer.

The Bears had a chance to answer back in their half of the third loading the bases with no outs, but a fielder's choice forcing out John Dortch at home, a foul out to the catcher and a fly out to center field ended the scoring threat.

Mercer also played some stellar defense as KSU put runners at second and third with one out in the fourth, but on a fly out by Tyler Stubblefield right fielder Josh Thompson fired a strike to home plate that gunned down Matt Dallas to retire the side.

The Owls (24-21, 6-12 A-Sun) increased their lead to three in the sixth frame as Andrew Martin and Jerome Wooley registered back-to-back run-scoring singles.

Mercer's offense finally got untracked in the bottom of the sixth as they were able to tie the score at three. Crawford led off with an infield single and advanced to third on a Shaughnessy double. Crawford then scored on a wild pitch and Thompson followed with his eighth homer, a two-run jack over the left-field fence.

Justin Freeman (1-2) was charged with the loss after giving up the game-winning run on two hits in 1 1/3 innings. Jason Lowey (1-1) earned the win tossing two innings of no-hit, shutout relief. Junior Cory

Gerrin picked up his second save in as many days, giving him 11 on the year and putting him in a tie for the conference lead.

KSU cracked the scoreboard in the first inning of the second game taking an early 1-0 advantage. Robbins doubled to open the game and Baker drove him in with a single through the right side of the infield.

Mercer answered right back in the bottom of the first taking a 3-1 lead on four hits. Shaughnessy started the rally and Thompson followed with an infield single. Each runner advanced a base on a double steal and Shaughnessy came around to score when catcher Ray Redden threw the ball away on the play. Steve Karwatt capped the scoring with a two-out, RBI single.

The game was back and forth in the early going as the Owls plated a run in the second on Robbins second double of the contest, narrowing the gap to one.

The Bears busted out in the bottom of the second plating four two-out runs on five hits. The scoring started when Shaughnessy knocked in Crawford, who reached base on a two-out double, giving the Bears a 4-2 lead. After a walk and single, the bases were loaded with Eric Renfroe at the dish. The senior center fielder came through with a two-run single and Armstrong came around to score on the play when shortstop Jacob Robbins threw the ball out of play.

Kennesaw State scored on an RBI single from Martin in the third, but Mercer grabbed the run right back when Thompson walked with the bases loaded in the bottom half. For the seventh consecutive half inning a team scored as Morrow pushed home a run with a ground out and Dallas cut the deficit to three with an RBI infield single.

The Owls scored again in the fifth frame as Robbins knocked in his second run of the game with a ground out, but the Bears came right back again scoring on a Shaughnessy single. For the sixth straight inning, KSU plated a run as Morrow came around to score on a sacrifice fly from Martin, but again Mercer answered back. Following a single by Renfroe and a double via Karwatt, Tyler Brown picked up an RBI with a sacrifice fly.

The Bears tacked on some insurance in the seventh taking a 13-7 lead. Crawford and Shaughnessy once again set the table, and Armstrong, Renfroe and Brown garnered RBI singles.

Renfroe went 3-for-4 in game two with three RBIs and one run scored, and Armstrong was 3-for-5 while scoring three runs and driving in a pair.

Owls' starter Dan Dale (2-3) surrendered four runs on seven hits in 1 2/3 innings. On the other side, right-hander Justin Boyette did not fair any better allowing three runs on six hits and two walks in 2 2/3 innings while registering one strikeout. Josh Lowey (5-2) was credited with the win after tossing three innings of one-run ball.

Gardner-Webb 3, Mercer 2 (11 Inn.) May 10-Varsity Field Boiling Springs, N.C.

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. - Brantley New and Jonathon Ban locked up in a pitcher's duel on Thursday afternoon as Gardner-Webb pulled out a come-from-behind win defeating Mercer 3-2 in 11 innings at Varsity Field.

New allowed one run on five hits in nine innings while striking out eight and walking one. The senior ace continued his strong conference run and has now racked up 83 strikeouts in 95 innings this season while lowering his ERA to 3.03.

Ban was strong throughout the game tossing eight innings of six-hit, one-run ball. The sophomore right-hander struck out six and issued one free pass.

Mercer (28-21, 13-9 A-Sun) trailed 1-0 from the second inning through the eighth frame, but Josh Thompson registered Mercer's first clutch hit in the game, lacing a double to left center scoring Matt Crawford to tie the game.

The Bears played small ball to push across the go-ahead run in the 10th inning. Billy Shaughnessy led off with an infield single and advanced to second base when catcher Ty Boyles threw the ball into right field when attempting to pick him off. Nick DiMauro advanced Shaughnessy to third with a sacrifice fly and Crawford plated the junior shortstop with a sacrifice fly of his own.

Gardner-Webb handed Cory Gearrin (3-2) his second blown save in 13 chances rebounding to tie the game in the bottom of the 10th. Matt Rizzuto notched a one-out single and advanced to third when Gearrin's pick-off attempt was thrown away. Pinch hitter Jon Crockett made the Bears pay knocking in Rizzuto with a fly out to center.

The Dawgs retired the Bears 1-2-3 in the 11th frame and took that momentum into the bottom of the inning. Jon Ahearn was hit by a pitch to open the inning, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt and advanced to third base on Daniel Cooke's infield single. In dramatic fashion, GWU pulled off a nicely-executed suicide squeeze with Jeremiah Lokken at the dish to win the game.

Matt Tafazzoli (4-1) picked up the win tossing three innings of solid relief. The only run Tafazzoli allowed was unearned.

The Bulldogs (22-28, 9-13 A-Sun) tallied the first run of the contest in the second inning. Nate McDonald led off the frame with a single and scored on Rizzuto's run-scoring base hit two batters later.

Eric Renfroe paced Mercer going 3-for-5 with a stolen base and Thompson went 2-for-5 with an RBI and one double, which was the Bears' only extra-base

Games 50-51

Game 1 - Gardner-Webb 11, Mercer 5 Game 2 - Mercer 6, Gardner-Webb 4 May 11-Varsity Field Boiling Springs, N.C.

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. - The Mercer baseball squad was defeated by Gardner-Webb 11-5 in the first game of Friday's doubleheader and the Bears salvaged the series with a 6-4 win in the finale. The Bulldogs took the series two games to one, but Mercer clinched a spot in the Atlantic Sun Tournament with the win.

In the first game of the twin bill, Gardner-Webb scored in each of the first four innings and cruised to the win behind 6 1/3 strong innings from Josh Drewery (3-5). Drewery gave up five runs, only two of which were earned, on seven hits while striking out six and walking none. The Bears scored all of their runs via the long ball finishing the game with three, but it was not enough.

The series finale featured more power from the Bears as they pounded out two more home runs. Billy Shaughnessy led the way going 3-for-4 with two RBIs, one run scored and a homer and left-hander Blake Quarles (1-3) tossed a solid game going 5 2/3 innings and allowing two runs on six hits. The crafty southpaw registered three strikeouts and issued two free passes.

In game one, Right-hander Boone Webster walked the first two batters in Gardner-Webb's half of the first and it came back to haunt him as the Bulldogs took an early two-run lead. Jamall Kinard came around to score on a ground out by Daniel Cooke and Nate McDonald plated Jeremiah Lokken with a single to right field.

An inning later, the Bulldogs added to their lead when Jay McConnell jacked his fifth home run, a solo shot over the center-field fence. Kinard led off the third frame with his first homer this season extending the GWU lead to 4-0. Later in the inning, Lokken and Cooke notched back-to-back singles and each scored on Matt Rizzuto's two-run base hit.

The Bears (29-22, 14-10 A-Sun) tallied their first run of the game in the fourth inning as Eric Renfroe jacked his seventh long ball.

Gardner-Webb (23-29, 10-14 A-Sun) took an 8-1 lead with a pair of unearned runs in the bottom of the fourth. Justin Loyd reached on an error and scored on a double from Jon Ahearn, and Ahearn crossed the plate on a Kinard ground out.

Mercer narrowed the deficit to three with a pair of round trippers in the seventh frame. Thompson notched his ninth round tripper to lead off the inning and Tyler Brown garnered a three-run shot later in the frame, the junior's fourth on the year.

Leading the A-Sun in steals, Kinard is known more for his speed than his power, but the speedster went deep for the second time in the game and on the season with a two-run shot in the seventh frame. Later in the frame, Rizzuto drove in his third run of the game with a run-scoring single giving GWU a decisive 11-5 advantage.

Webster (6-5) struggled with his command surrendering six runs on six hits in 2 1/3 innings. The junior fanned one and walked a pair.

Mercer squandered a chance to take an early lead in game two putting runners at second and third base with one out in the second inning, but a pair of strikeouts ended the frame. Gardner-Webb took the momentum into its half of the inning putting together a two-out rally. Following a single and a walk, game one winner Josh Drewery drove in a run with a single to left.

The Bears fought back to take the lead in the third inning, 3-1. Mercer continued to feast off the long ball as Shaughnessy hit his second homer of the season to lead off the frame and John Dortch belted a two-run homer three batters later, his second as well.

In the fourth inning, Mercer added two runs to its lead. Shaughnessy and Thompson each delivered RBI singles putting the Bears up 5-1. Mercer scored for the third consecutive inning plating an unearned run in the fifth.

The Bulldogs put single runs on the board in the sixth, seventh and eighth frames to pull to within two. Joey Testa plated Rizzuto with a run-scoring single and Kinard scored on McConnell's sacrifice fly. Gardner-Webb scored its run in the eighth without garnering a hit. A pair of walks chased Josh Lowey from the game and Cory Gearrin walked the first batter he faced before hitting Cooke with a pitch to force in a run.

Gearrin tossed a scoreless ninth to pick up his 12th save, giving the junior closer the conference lead.

GWU left-hander Ben Campbell (6-5) was tagged with the loss allowing three runs on seven hits in 3 1/3 innings of work. Campbell struck out two and walked a pair.
