Game 15

Mercer vs. Georgia State

Feb. 28, 2007

The Field at Panthersville

Mercer is coming off a three-game sweep over Florida A&M over the weekend at Claude Smith Field. The Bears received tremendous pitching over the weekend as the staff combined for a 0.50 ERA, 28 strikeouts and limited the Rattlers to a .252 batting average. Eric Renfroe moved to the lead-off spot and produced notching a .600 on-base percentage and scored four runs. He also sparked the Bears with a first-inning home run in game one.

The pitching staff received solid performances from newcomers David Harden and Justin Boyette. Harden, a freshman from Marietta, Ga., made his first start at Mercer and was sharp early, retiring the first nine batters he faced and facing the minimum through five innings. He went six innings and allowed one unearned run while recording seven strikeouts and walked none. Boyette, a sophomore from Okaloosa-Walton Junior College, threw a complete game, six-hitter in game three. He allowed only one unearned run and struck out six while walking one. Cory Gearrin has been on fire to open the season as he has yet to allow a hit or run in 10 1/3 innings of work. He earned the win in game one, moving his record to 2-0, and picked up his third save of the season in game two. Gearrin and Brantley New share the team lead and the A-Sun lead in strikeouts with 20. Freshman Nick DiMauro came up big in his first collegiate at-bat, notching a walk-off double giving the Bears a 3-2 win in Friday's game.

2007 Mercer Bears Baseball

Craig Gibson Head Coach - Fourth Season

Mercer head coach Craig Gibson has helped put the Bears among the elite squads in the Atlantic Sun Conference heading into 2007. Last season, Gibson led Mercer to its best finish since 1999, earning a 34-26 mark and a third-place finish in the conference. Highlighting the season were victories over No. 1 Florida and No. 1 Clemson. Closer Andrew Urena finished second in the nation in saves with 15, and earned All-America honors from several publications. Urena was chosen by the Chicago White Sox during the 11th round of the June major league baseball draft. Brantley New was also drafted last June in the 27th round by the Boston Red Sox, but elected to return to Mercer for his senior year. The Bears also finished over .500 in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1982-83. Due to the recent success, Gibson has been able to land top-flight recruits, as Collegiate Baseball tabbed Mercer's 2007 recruiting class among the nation's top tier.

In 2005, Gibson guided the Bears back above .500, marking the first time Mercer had finished the season with a winning record since 1999. In the process, the Bears set a new school record with eight shutouts and defeated Southwest Missouri State, who finished the season ranked in the Top 25.

Gibson became the third head coach at Mercer University since 1948 at the start of the 2004 season. Barry Myers hung up his spikes after 26 years at Mercer and the Bears did not have to go far to find their new leader.

In his first campaign as head coach, Gibson led his young squad to a 20-35 record, a nine-win improvement from the previous season. The 2004 Bears had just three seniors on the roster, and of the eight juniors on the squad, only one had played for Mercer in 2003. The rest of the junior class had transferred to Mercer looking for a chance to win.

Mercer opened the 2004 season with a victory over Florida A&M for Gibson's first career win on January 24, 2004. On March 20, 2004, the Bears defeated Jacksonville 2-0, for Gibson's first Atlantic Sun Conference victory. The Bears won two of three games against Troy on April 23-24, 2004 for the first conference series win during the Craig Gibson Era.

Gibson started his career at Mercer as a player. His junior year, the hard-hitting first baseman earned Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Year honors, while leading the Bears to the Atlantic Sun Tournament and a second-place finish in the regular season.

Following his playing career, Gibson served as a graduate assistant coach on Myers' staff. He then took over as the head baseball coach at Jupiter Community High School in Jupiter, Fla., for two years before moving over to Suncoast Community High School in Riviera Beach, Fla., for one season. Gibson wrapped up his high school coaching career in 1993 as the head coach at Palm Beach Gardens High School in Palm Beach, Fla.

In August 1993, Gibson got the call to come home and serve as an assistant under Myers. With his strong ties to Mercer and a wealth of coaching experience, it made Athletics Director Bobby Pope's choice an easy one when he elevated Gibson to the head job following Myers resignation.

During his time as an assistant, Gibson coached four players who were drafted by the Major Leagues and helped lead Mercer to two A-Sun divisional titles. The Bears also advanced to the A-Sun Tournament three times, finishing as high as third in 1999. The 1999 team was one of the best Gibson worked with, finishing in a tie for third place in the A-Sun at 19-11 and going 36-24 overall.

Since 1994, he has also been involved in helping fundraising for Mercer athletics, serving as director of the athletic department annual fund.

On top of his victories on the field, Gibson was a winner in the classroom, earning a bachelor's degree in history and health, physical education and recreation, and a master's of education in social science from Mercer.

A native of Macon, Ga., Gibson and his wife Diane have two children, Tyler and Lindsey.

A Look at the Panthers

After starting off the season 0-4 with a loss at Mercer, Georgia State (4-6) reeled off three wins in a row including a 9-5 upset at No. 15 Georgia Tech. The Panthers could not keep their momentum going last weekend as they dropped two out of three games versus Indiana State. They were out-scored 25-10 in the series at The Field at Panthersville.

Georgia State's offense is hitting a respectable .280 on the season, but the pitching staff has recorded an earned run average of 7.18 early on. Junior Luke Gordon has started the season on fire with a .515 batting average (17-for-33), 11 runs scored, eight RBIs, three doubles and one home run.

Mercer defeated Georgia State, 8-2, in their first meeting of the season. In that game, Josh Thompson went 3-for-3 with four RBIs, one run scored, one triple and a home run. Boone Webster also picked up his second win of the season allowing no runs in five innings of work. Senior Aeden McQueary led the Panthers with a 2-for-4 effort and two RBIs. Four of Georgia State's five pitchers that threw in that game gave up an earned run. On the flip side, only one of Mercer's four hurlers allowed a run to cross the plate.

Mercer leads the all-time series 55-35, including its win in Macon on Feb. 14. The former conference rivals will meet again in Panthersville on Apr. 4. The Bears and Panthers split last season as Mercer won at Claude Smith Field, 7-2, and Georgia State took the game in Panthersville, 6-5.

Top 25 Wins: Mercer recorded two wins over No. 2 Miami (Fla.) to open the season, but defeating a Top 25 team is no new thing for Coach Gibson's squads. Last season, the Bears defeated No. 1 Florida, 3-2, in Gainesville, Fla. on Feb. 15, and scored a win over No. 1 Clemson, 3-2, in Clemson, S.C. on Feb. 26. The Bears have registered a win over a Top 25 in each of Gibson's first four seasons. In 2004, Mercer defeated No. 19 UCF on May 15, 6-0, and on Apr. 20, 2005, the Bears up-ended No. 19 College of Charleston, 10-2.

Feb. 2, 2007-Coral Gables, Fla.

Mark Light Stadium

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - The Mercer baseball squad opened its 2007 campaign with a bang, scoring two runs in the ninth inning to grab a 6-5 decision over No. 2 Miami on Friday night. Preseason A-Sun Player of the Year Josh Thompson led the way going 4-for-4 with three RBIs, two runs scored, one double and a home run.

The 'Canes wasted no time getting on the board, plating a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning. Mercer right-handed pitcher Brantley New retired the leadoff batter before Roger Tomas and Yonder Alonso followed with back-to-back singles.

With runners at first and third, New struck out right fielder Dennis Raben, but Alonso broke from first and on catcher Josh Thompson's throw to second, Tomas swiped home. Designated hitter Mark Sobolewski then roped an RBI single giving Miami an early 2-0 advantage.

Miami struck again when Alonso added his second hit of the game, a leadoff home run to straight-away center in the third inning.

The Bears played small ball to score their first run of the season in the fourth. Thompson led off with a double to right-center field and advanced to third on a groundout by Eric Renfroe. Mike Armstrong plated Thompson with an infield single, pulling Mercer within two at 3-1.

The 'Canes extended their lead to 5-1 in the fifth as catcher Richard O'Brien laced a two-run single to right, scoring Raben and Gus Menendez.

Mercer cut the deficit to three in the sixth when Thompson belted his first home run of the season over the left-field fence.

Tyler Brown's RBI infield single tacked on another run for the Bears in the seventh and Thompson followed with his third hit of the game, an RBI single to left, pulling Mercer within one at 5-4.

Matt Crawford led off the ninth with a bunt single and Tyler McCarty hit an opposite-field single giving the Bears life in the final frame. Brown advanced Crawford to third with a fielder's choice and Thompson delivered his fourth hit of the night, an RBI single evening up the score, 5-5.

Following a Renfroe stolen base, Mike Armstrong came through with a game-winning RBI single scoring pinch runner Richard Bentley, giving Mercer its first lead of the game, 6-5.

Feb. 3, 2007-Coral Gables, Fla.

Mark Light Stadium

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - The Mercer baseball squad defeated No. 2 Miami, 8-5, on Saturday night. The Bears were out-hit 10-5, but took advantage of their opportunities in starting the season with their second straight win.

For the second straight night, the Hurricanes (0-2) plated a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning. Senior left-hander Blake Quarles retired the first two batters before Yonder Alonso and Mark Sobolewski delivered back-to-back singles. Following a walk to right fielder Dennis Raben, Gus Menendez recorded a two-run single scoring Alonso and Sobolewski.

Mercer tied the score, 2-2, on Billy Shaughnessy's two-run blast in the fourth inning. Shaughnessy belted senior right-hander Danny Gil's 0-2 offering just inside the foul pole down the left-field line.

Miami took back the lead in the bottom half of the fourth when Jason Lowey came in relief of Quarles. With two outs and the bases loaded, Lowey hit Sobolewski with a pitch, giving the Hurricanes a 3-2 advantage.

The Bears battled back again in the fifth as Matt Crawford led off with a walk and on a nicely executed hit-and-run, Crawford advanced to third on a Tyler McCarty single down the right-field line. With Tyler Brown batting, Gil threw a wild pitch allowing Crawford to score and even up the score at three runs apiece.

Teddy Kaufman relieved Gil with one out in the inning and hit Eric Renfroe with a pitch. The 'Canes then turned to Jason Santana out of the bullpen with the bases loaded and Mike Armstrong at the plate. Armstrong produced an RBI fielder's choice giving Mercer the lead at 4-3.

In the back-and-forth affair, Miami knotted up the score again on a sacrifice fly by Nick Freitas that scored Menendez in the bottom of the fifth. With the score tied a four, the Hurricanes struck again as freshman Ryan Jackson notched his first collegiate hit, scoring Blake Tekotte, and putting Miami back ahead, 5-4.

Mercer took advantage on a pair of Miami miscues in the seventh. McCarty scored when Shaughnessy was hit by a pitch, and Steven Karwatt followed with a high fly ball in front of home plate. Catcher Jason Haggerty and relief pitcher Carlos Gutierrez had some communication problems on the play, and Gutierrez dropped the ball allowing Brown to score the go-ahead run and give the Bears a 6-5 lead.

Armstrong added some insurance with a two-run home run in the ninth.

Andy Campbell registered the win for Mercer throwing two innings of no-hit, shutout relief. Raben was charged with the loss allowing one unearned run in 0.2 innings of work. Cory Gearrin came in and notched his second save in as many days striking out four in the final 1.2 innings

Quarles went three innings and allowed two earned runs on six hits and Hurricanes' starter Danny Gil no-hit the Bears through 3.2 innings, but only retired two more batters before his departure. He allowed four earned runs on three hits while striking out four batters.

Armstrong finished the game 1-for-3 with three RBIs, two runs scored and a home run, and Shaughnessy chipped in three RBIs, one run scored and one home run.

Before yesterday's victory, Mercer's last win over Miami came in 1975 and they were 1-27 all-time versus the Hurricanes. The Bears two wins ensures a series' victory and they will look for a sweep in game three Sunday afternoon at Mark Light Field. First pitch is slated for 1 p.m.

The last time Miami lost its opening series of the season was in 1967 against Florida State.

Bill Kleinschrodt opened the South Alabama fourth with a triple and scored on Sean Laird's ground out, evening up the score at five runs apiece.

One inning later, South Alabama put up a six-spot on the scoreboard. Four of the runs were unearned off of two Mercer errors. Doss, Joel Collins and Jernigan each delivered one RBI in the inning and Kaeton plated a pair of runs with a single up the middle.

Game 9

Mercer 9, South Alabama 5

Feb. 18-Mobile, Ala.

Stanky Field

MOBILE, Ala. - The Mercer (4-5) baseball squad posted seven runs in the last three innings, pulling out a come-from-behind 9-5 victory over South Alabama (2-1) on Sunday afternoon at Stanky Field.

The Bears took an early lead for the second consecutive day as John Dortch got things going in the second inning with a lead-off single. Following a sacrifice bunt by Billy Shaughnessy, Mark Jarvis, making his first start of the season, came through with a run-scoring single.

South Alabama responded as they had all weekend with three runs in the bottom of the second. Mercer right-hander Michael Shaw retired the lead-off man, but the next four USA batters registered singles. Joel Collins and Bill Kleinschrodt recorded back-to-back RBI-singles and Ray Kruml capped the scoring with a sacrifice fly to center field.

Mercer took advantage of South Alabama miscues an inning later. Mike Armstrong led off with a single and following a pair of wild pitches advancing Armstrong to third, Josh Thompson notched a sacrifice fly pulling the Bears within one at 3-2.

Both pitching staff buckled down over the next three innings allowing no runs on only two hits. This was a rarity in the three-game series that saw both teams combine for 50 runs and 68 hits.

The Bears rallied to take a 5-3 lead in the seventh. Billy Shaughnessy started the rally with a lead-off double and three batters later, Shaughnessy scored on a fielder's choice by Matt Crawford. Freshman Michael Langley, who earlier in the series recorded his first career hit and RBI, scored on another fielder's choice groundout, this time by Tyler Brown. Jaguars' shortstop Russell Harben threw the ball away on the play and Crawford scored an unearned run giving Mercer the lead.

In this back-and-forth series, South Alabama countered again in the bottom of the seventh. Clint Toomey recorded a RBI-single and Kruml scored on a ground out by Ryne Jernigan evening the score at five runs apiece.

Mercer took the lead for good in the eighth inning as Dortch led off with a double down the left-field line. Eric Renfroe plated Dortch with a fielder's choice and Armstrong produced another run with a sacrifice fly giving the Bears a 7-5 lead.

Closer Cory Gearrin entered the game in the bottom of the seventh and shut down the Jaguars the rest of the way in picking up his first win as a Bear. He struck out four and walked four, while pitching 2.2 innings of no-hit, shutout ball. Gearrin has yet to allow a hit or run in 7.2 innings of solid relief.

The Bears tacked on some insurance in the ninth spearheaded by Dortch's second double and run scored in as many innings. Shaughnessy drove in Steve Karwatt with a sacrifice fly and Renfroe drove in his second run of the day with a single up the middle.

Shaw went 2.0 innings for Mercer and allowed three earned runs on four hits while striking out two. South Alabama starter Joey Doan pitched a solid game going 6.2 innings while giving up five runs, four earned, on five hits. Doan walked none and struck out five batters. Travis Johnson was tagged with the loss allowing two earned runs in 0.2 innings of work.

Dortch finished the game 3-for-5 with three runs scored and two doubles. Seven Bears picked up a run batted in led by Renfroe's two RBIs.

Game 10

Georgia 6, Mercer 5

Feb. 21-Macon, Ga.
Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - The Bears gave the Bulldogs all they could handle Wednesday night at Claude Smith Field, but were defeated 6-5 in front of a standing-room only crowd. The Georgia bullpen held Mercer in check over the final five innings, allowing only one unearned run, and stranding seven runners on base.

Mercer (4-6) received a big lift as right-hander Boone Webster escaped a jam in the first inning. With the bases loaded and two outs, Webster struck out Ryan Peisel to end the inning.

A wild second inning began when Georgia (1-3) notched four consecutive hits with one out to take a 3-0 lead. Matt Cerione delivered a RBI-double and Gordon Beckham scored two more runs on his double down the left-field line.

The Bears came right back as Eric Renfroe got things going with a one-out double and Jason Lowey followed with a walk. Billy Shaughnessy came through with a big two-run single and he scored on an error by right fielder Cerione to tie the game at three. Dortch drove a single to the opposite-field and Shaughnessy was held by head coach Craig Gibson at third, but Cerione attempted to throw behind the runner and air-mailed the ball to the fence, allowing Shaughnessy to cross the plate.

The Dogs took the lead for good in the top of the fourth, as Beckham picked up another run batted in with a single to left field and Jonathan Wyatt followed with a run-scoring single.

Mercer would not go quietly tacking on a run in its half of the fourth, making the score 5-4. Shaughnessy once again was clutch notching a lead-off double. The Bears played small ball as Shaughnessy advanced to third on a sacrifice bunt and scored on Dortch's second hit of the night.

Georgia added some insurance an inning later when Mike Freeman registered the game-winning RBI on a double down the left-field line.

In the eighth inning, the Bears pulled to within one at 6-5. Shaughnessy scored his third run of the game on a heads-up play. Mike Armstrong hit a routine grounder to the shortstop, but Beckham was unable to make the play. While first baseman Ryan Peisel was trying to gather the ball, Shaughnessy alertly took off from third and dove around catcher Joey Lewis's tag.

Matt Crawford kept the game alive for Mercer, recording a bunt single with two outs in the final frame. Lowey followed with a walk, but Georgia's hard-throwing closer Josh Fields notched his third strikeout of the inning to pick up his first save of the season.

Webster (2-1) went 4.0 innings and allowed five earned runs on 11 hits. He struck out one and walked five batters. Nick Montgomery (1-0) picked up starter Dean Weaver and threw 3.0 innings of no-run, one-hit ball. Montgomery fanned three and walked one.

Shaughnessy led the Bears at the plate as he went 2-for-4 with two RBIs to go along with his three runs scored. Dortch finished the game 2-for-4 with one RBI and Steve Karwatt was 2-for-4 with a double to deep-center field in the seventh inning.

"We gave it our best shot and played well," said Gibson. "We need to get more two-out hits against a team of Georgia's caliber. This game should help us down the road when we get into our conference schedule."

Game 11

Mercer 3, Florida A&M 2

Feb. 23-Macon, Ga.
Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - In his first collegiate at-bat, freshman Nick DiMauro notched a run-scoring double in the bottom of the ninth propelling Mercer to a 3-2 win over Florida A&M at Claude Smith Field on Friday evening.

"We were emotionally flat after the big Georgia game on Wednesday," said assistant coach Tim Boeth. "You have got to tip your hat to (Ben) Baylor. He did an outstanding job for them, but this was a much-needed win for us."

The Bears (5-6) started the game off with a bang as Eric Renfroe led off the first inning with a home run to right-center field.

For the second straight inning, Mercer tacked on a run to take an early 2-0 lead. Mike Armstrong reached on an error by shortstop David James and scored on Josh Lowey's first RBI of the season.

The Rattlers (1-11) cut the lead in half in the top of the sixth inning when Thaddous McBurrows doubled home Darryl Evans.

Florida A&M tied the game in the seventh with an unearned run. Gordon hit a routine ground ball to Armstrong at first base, but relief pitcher Andy Campbell dropped Armstrong's toss and Gordon advanced to second on the play. Jared Jeffries then recorded a two-out base hit, evening the score at two runs apiece.

In the bottom of the eighth inning the Bears had a chance to take the lead, but a mistake on the base paths and a fine defensive play by the Rattlers thwarted the potential rally.

With runners on first and second FAMU's left-handed starter Ben Baylor threw a wild pitch, but catcher Elvin Millan made a nice recovery and threw out Matt Crawford at second base. Following an intentional walk to Josh Thompson, Armstrong laced a ball that looked as though it would get through the infield, but third baseman Jared Jeffries ranged to his left and made a nice diving stop. Jeffries threw to second and forced out Thompson to end the inning.

After coming in and recording the final two outs in the top of the ninth, Cory Gearrin led off the bottom of the frame with a single in his first at-bat as a Bear. Dortch followed with a fielder's choice and Josh Lowey notched a single, moving Dortch to second and setting up DiMauro's heroics. DiMauro laced a one-out double into the gap in left-center field and Dortch crossed the plate giving Mercer the win.

Right hander Brantley New picked up a no-decision in his fourth start of the season. He allowed one earned run on six hits in 6.0 innings of work. New struck out eight batters and walked one. Gearrin (2-0) registered the win recording the final two outs in the ninth on a strikeout and a nicely executed pick-off in which Billy Shaughnessy snuck up behind the runner at second and applied the tag.

Baylor pitched a solid game for FAMU going 8.0 innings. He allowed two runs, one earned, on three hits while striking out six and walking two. Austin Dill (0-1) was the losing pitcher. Dill allowed the winning run on three hits while recording only one out.

Game 12

Mercer 4, Florida A&M 1

Feb. 24-Macon, Ga.
Claude Smith Field

MACON, Ga. - Senior Josh Thompson notched a pair of run-scoring doubles leading Mercer (6-6) to a 4-1 win over Florida A&M on Saturday night at Claude Smith Field.

"(Josh) Thompson had a couple big knocks and it was enough tonight," said assistant coach Tim Boeth.

For the second straight day, Eric Renfroe reached base to lead off the game and FAMU starter Cirilo Manego hit the next batter, Mike Armstrong. That set up Josh Thompson's first double down the left-field line to plate Mercer's first run of the game. Two batters later, Steve Karwatt produced a run-scoring groundout, giving the Bears an early 2-0 lead.

Thompson struck again in the fifth with a double to right-center field, scoring Renfroe for the second time and putting Mercer up by three.

FAMU (1-12) tallied an unearned run in the sixth closing the gap at 3-1, as Stanley Gnat crossed the plate when second baseman Nick DiMauro mishandled a ground ball of the bat of Jared Jeffries.

Billy Shaughnessy tacked on some insurance in the bottom of the eighth, registering a RBI-single that scored Steve Karwatt. Karwatt recorded a two-out triple setting up the opportunity.

Cory Gearrin entered the game in the bottom of the ninth and closed the door once again. The junior picked up his third save of the season by striking out the side. Gearrin has not allowed a hit or run in 10 1/3 innings of work and has struck out 20 batters.

Right-hander David Harden (1-1) retired the first nine batters of the game and faced the minimum through five innings. The freshman was stellar in his first start as a Bear throwing six innings while allowing one unearned run and one hit. Harden struck out seven and walked none.

"It was a great outing by (David) Harden," added Boeth. "He showed a great deal of maturity and poise, and was on the attack. Casey Stuart called a great game behind the plate as well."

Manego (1-2) recorded the loss giving up four earned runs on seven hits in eight innings of work. He struck out seven and walked three batters.

through three innings. Boyette allowed zero hits and struck out three and Smith gave up only one hit after three frames.

Florida A&M (1-13) jumped out to an early lead for the first time in the series, plating an unearned run in the top of the fourth inning. Darryl Evans notched a RBI-single, scoring Jared Jeffries on the play. The Bears avoided further damage with a nifty 1-4-6-3 double play to end the inning. Jared Grace hit a ball up the middle that deflected off Boyette's glove and Michael Langley grabbed it at the edge of the dirt. Langley then made a nice flip to Billy Shaughnessy who turned the twin-killing for Mercer.

The Bears answered back in the bottom half of the fourth as Josh Thompson came around to score after a lead-off walk. Mercer took the lead, 2-1, when Mike Armstrong scored on a wild pitch.

Mercer (7-6) put together its first rally of the day in the eighth inning. Pinch runner Richard Bentley started the scoring crossing the plate on a wild pitch by relief pitcher Eddie Thomas. Tyler Brown then laced a run-scoring single to right field giving the Bears a 4-1 advantage. Matt Crawford kept the inning going registering a walk with the bases loaded to tack on another run.

Boyette (1-1) earned his first win as a Bear. The junior college transfer tossed a complete game and allowed one unearned run on six hits. He struck out six and walked one.

Smith (0-4) was charged with the loss going 3 2/3 innings while allowing two unearned runs on one hit and two walks.

Thompson finished the game 1-for-1 with three walks and two runs scored.
